

geese be allowed to run at large in that part of the Parish of Springfield, lying at Sprague's Point, on any of the roads or streets between George F. Case's upper line and Peter Sprague's lower line.

CARDWELL.

ORDERED, That no neat cattle, horses, goats, sheep, swine or geese be allowed to run at large, or pasture on any of the highways in the parish of Cardwell, lying between William Grocuts and the line dividing the Parish of Cardwell from the Parish of Sussex.

UPHAM.

ORDERED, That no neat cattle be allowed to run at large in the Parish of Upham, on that part of the public highway, starting from the post office on the Salt Spring Corner so-called, and running to Joseph Sharp's salt works, subject to the same Regulations as other sections of the County of King's where neat cattle are prohibited from running at large.

LOW LANDS.

STUDHOLM.

ORDERED, That no neat cattle, horses, sheep or swine be allowed to run at large on any of the Intervales or low lands at any time in that part of the parish of Studholm, situate on Smith's Creek, between the north-east side line of land owned by Alfred A. Stockton and the road leading from Robert C. Oldfield's mills to Isaac Coats and others. Provided always, that any owner or occupier of lands in the said district, shall be privileged to pasture his own land when it is enclosed by a lawful fence; and it shall be the duty of all pound keepers, constables and hogreeves, and they are hereby empowered to take up and impound any animal going at large contrary to this foregoing Regulation, and any such pound keeper, constable and hogreeve shall be entitled for his services to such fees as are provided by previous Regulation.

By the Court.

GEO. OTTY,
Clerk of the Peace.

OCTOBER TERM, A. D. 1876.

CARDWELL.

ORDERED, That the words "neat cattle" be struck out of the Regulation passed in February last, relating to the Parish of Cardwell.
