Wheat Market Closes Firm After a Severe Break in Prices

Bearish Conditions Depress Sentiment in Early Trading, But Market Closes on Sharp Rally-Corn and Oats Firm.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Reports that the Interstate commerce commission had decided to refuse permission for reductions of the Country hides, green 010 Calfskins, per ib 012 Sheepskins, each 060 Horsehides, No. 1 325 Interstate commerce commission had decided to refuse permission for reduced freight rates from the Canadian Northwest, helped rally the wheat market to-day, after a decline due to better weather in the Argentine. Closing figures were firm,a shade lower to 1-8c | Local grain dealers' quotations are as higher than last night. Corn finished 1-8c to 8-8c up, oats unchanged to 3-8c advance, and hog products varying a mickel each way from 24 hours before.
The news regardingthe alleged decision adverse to a proposed reduction of railroad charges on Canadian wheat came from Minneapolis and tended to dispel gloom as to the cash situation.

During the greater portion of the day,

During the greater portion of the day, however, the market was depressed largely as a result of improving harvest conditions in the Argentine. The cold wave, too, seemed to slacken business all round.

Corn Movement Siow.

Speculators were the best buyers of corn. Their motive appeared to be the fact that the extreme cold was making the actual movement of the crop very slow from farms and the terminals. May ranged between 64 1-4c to 64 3-8c and 64 3-4c, losing at the first named figures, a net gain of 1-8c. Cash grades were steady.

Belief that feeders were using oats in preference to corn because of the relative cheapness, led to considerable covering in the former cereal.

PEOPLE MUST HELP FIGHT

PACKERS, SAY SHIPPERS

In word off Repetition in Canada of Beef Trusts of States.

Some of the drovers who handle cattle on the Toronto markets, met last night to discuss the deadlock existent between them and the abattoirs. They afterward handed in the following letter to The World. The letter has the sanction of the chief officers of the Ontario Live Stock Shippers' Association: Editor World: The fight between the cattle dealers and the packers of Ontario Live Stock Shippers' Association: Editor World: The fight between the cattle dealers and the packers are in wrong, for the simple reason that the Ontario Live Stock Association has received applications from 120 cattle dealers seeking admission to their association, feeling that there is a strong combine between the four packing houses to force the farmer and cattle dealer of Ontario to do as they feel should be done to suit their (the packers') ideas:

It also seems to the cattle dealers the time.

In the cheaper issues a slight feeling of conhuence than the market has known for some time.

Dome Extension opened up 2 points from last night at 48 and scored a further advance in the sarly dealings, only to slump rapidly when liquidation was resumed. The shares fell back to 46, a loss of 1-8 from leating the present of 3 points for the day, and bids were only a fraction below that figure at the closing call.

The idea among traders and close market followers was that the recent shake out in Dome Extension had been greatly overdone, and it was in this feeling that muoh of the demand to day found its inception.

Hollinger Recovers Rapidly.

A 20 point advance in Hollinger, only to slump rapidly when liquidation was resumed. The shares fell back to 49, a net gain of 3 points for the day, and bids were only a fraction below that figure at the closing call.

The idea among traders and it was in this feeling that muoh of the demand to day not a state of the day, and bids were only a fraction below that figure at the closing call.

A 20 point advance in the liquidati should be done to suit their (the packers') ideas:

It also seems to the cattle dealers the time has come to decide whether the four packing companies of Toronto are to have the say just who has the right to pay the loss of cattle condemned by the inspectors in those houses, the drover or the packer? And if the packer has his way in this matter, it is the opinion of the cattle dealers of Ontario that the time is not very far distant when the citizens of our province will be in the same position as the people of the United States, namely, that we will, be having an investigation into the general conditions of the trade to prove that there is not a combine of the said packers. At the present time there is an investigation going on in the United States, and if the finding of the courts of that country is such that a combine exists there, there is one thing sure, that there is no doubt that the condition of affairs here are fast reaching to the same ultimate results that have been attained by the beef trusts of the United States, and the only way to put a curb to this state of affairs is for the farmer, cattle dealers.

It also seems to the cattle dealers the time has come to decide whether the cocasioned where liquidation was centred. Crown Chartered dropped back to 47 3-4 and closed on offer there; American Gold Fields was off 5 points to $1.07; Preston sold again at 10 and some of the other stocks were sold slightly shaded.

In the Cobalts the feature was to be found in Nipissing, which continued its decline, losing 15 points at $6.30. La Rose was also lower, tho to a less-derivant.

The market on the whole was too irregular to be classed as either in a bullish or bearish frame of mind, but in the main stocks gave a fairly good account of themselves, and the steadier undertone in evidence served to brighten sentiment after the depression caused by the recent shakeout.

There was no further change in the condition for cattle since Menday, prices being firm at the advance noted, owing to the fact that the supply was not large and the percentage of good to choice stock was small, as compared with the requirements of such. The demand was good, owing to the favorable weather for keeping stock and the fact that butchers had no surplus supplies on hand. A few choice steers sold as high as $6.75 per cwt., but the bulk of the trading was done in good stock at $6.25 to $6.50, while choice cows brought $5.50, and good bulls $5.

Some of them were of the opinion that it would be a good place to keep pigeons, others that it would do to store trunks, while his worship the mayor thought it was good enough for detectives. There were those present who thought that the police might be willing to trade places with the guinea pigs, whose quarters are much lighter than those now offered to the police.

Yet others advanced the idea that it is the regular business of simon pure, three-ply, gumshod and pussy-footed sleuths to find their way in dark places and that as they send other folk where there are barred windows, insufficient light and imperfect ventilation, the same sort of thing might prove acceptable to them.

Hon. Adam Beck has advised the city to temporarily supply the G.T.R. with power to run their drilling plant while awaiting connection with the Trent River power for Kingston. Hon. Mr. Beck says he believes hydro-electric power will be brought to Kingston by July, and the local plant can supply the company with 500 horsepower. The Seymour Company has reached Napanee, and a transmission line will be run from there to this city.

To view of rapid development, the YMC.A. is preparing for much larger work, and will put forth an effort to raise $8000 for extension. SCHOOL CARETAKER DIES SUD-
