LABOR NEWS

O.B.U. STORY NONSENSE

"All this talk of the international movement among the carpenters worrying about alleged O.B.U. enthusiasm is all bunkum," said an official of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters to The World yesterday afternoon respecting an alleged ultimatum to the Dominion Shipbuilding Company to refuse to employ members of the One Big Union. "We have not sent out any such ultimatum. Neither have we decided to go out on strike, nor have we ever given a thought to such foolishness. The facts are that the Dominion Shipbuilding Company had run into a contract, and as a result had let out between 20 and 30 of its carpenters. These were immediately placed by our union, demand for carpenters being very brisk. There is the whole thing in a nutshell."

WEST TORONTO I.L.P.

William Stephenson, Mrs. Hector Prenter and J. W. Buckley, of the Independent Labor Party, will address Ward 7 I.L.P. at the Beaver Theatre, Dundas street, next Sunday evening at seven o'clock. The party is organizing very rapidly, and lists of applications for membership now total high.

TOM WATT RETURNING

Tom Watt, general organizer for the Canadian Federation of Labor, is expected to return to Toronto this evening. He is understood to have been very successful in his work out west.

BAKERS AND DRIVERS HARMONIZING

Bread drivers and bakers and cake bakers in Toronto are harmonizing activities within the Canadian Federation of Labor, and beginning within the next few days will hold joint executive meetings every other Sunday at Occident Hall.

FUNDS PROPERLY USED

Tom McMillen, general organizer for the Political Defence League in Eastern Canada, stated yesterday afternoon to The World that he was listed to give 14 addresses to local 1008, international Association of Machinists, and four to local 435. He gave assurances that no funds would leave his hands until he was assured that they would be used for the purposes indicated in his appointment and not for anything else. He has written James Law, president of the league, to this effect.

GOAT FOR CABINET-MAKERS

Cabinet-makers last night initiated twelve new members at their meeting held at the Labor Temple. This organization is progressing well. Altogether there are almost a thousand members of the craft in Toronto and vicinity. The union is affiliated with the United Brotherhood of Carpenters.

CIGARMAKERS PROGRESSING

Robert Todd, an official of the Cigar-makers' Union, stated yesterday afternoon that the union was progressing well and that it was once again finding its sea legs. "Nearly all the old members have returned to their former occupation," said Mr. Todd, respecting a lockout which was forced upon the employees of one of the large factories recently.

J. W. OGDEN COMING?

Tom McMillen has received a communication from J. W. Ogden, among the best known of British Trades Unionists, and one of the leading members of the Workers' Educational Association, to the effect that he may visit Canada in the near future.

LABOR MUNICIPAL LANDSLIDE

A. W. Mance, secretary of the Toronto Trades Council, has received a message from Rev. William Evans, well known leader, to the effect that the entire labor political forces of the west are united in placing men in municipal elections.

MARITIME POSTMEN STRIKE

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Nov. 12.—Austin McInnis of the Rural Mail Carriers' Union of Canada announced yesterday that the rural mail carriers in the maritime provinces would go on strike on Nov. 22. They are demanding a fixed salary according to mileage, as in the United States.
