Canada's Greatest Store

The Way We Buy!

Our appeal to you is that we save you money by purchasing in big lots. Our money is made in the advantages that come from careful buying. We aim to make our money that way. Manufacturers are willing to talk business when we go to them with a big order in one hand and cash in the other. We buy of the maker. No matter what corner of the world he is in, we go straight to his factory see what he makes; talk Irish to him, Scotch, English, French, Dutch, German, or a mixture of them all; find out, compare, choose, and buy largely.

Sometimes he's a little man, way off in the corner of the world, hidden from everybody and everybody hidden from him. No matter, we hunt him out, and he is so glad to be known that he jumps at the chance to get into this outer world.

That accounts for our success in all kinds of goods and not alone dry goods. We have buyers now in Japan and other buyers in Europe. There is absolutely no limit to the possibilities of this business, and the success we've already earned is merely a suggestion of what's ahead.

THE TORONTO SUNDAY WORLD

and devote hi World had only street report as its authority. The big Doctor might make a very successful politician. But our western subscriber does not believe in the idea at all, and sends us the following extract from Harper's Weekly of

A few years ago a committee of the dominant party in the Legislature of Virginia waited upon the Rev. Dr. Plumer, then resident in Richmond Virginia waited upon the Rev. Dr. Plumer, then resident in Richmond and pastor of one of its churches, but now professor in the Western Theological Seminary, and enquired whether he would consent to become their candidate for the United States Senate, assuring him that he could be very easily elected if he would permit his name to be used by the party. The Doctor, after thanking them for the honor intended to be conferred upon him, said to them, in his oracular style:

"Gentlemen, I believe you are in the habit, when you give up one office to seek another, of aiming to go up higher; are you not?"

They all replied in the affirmative.
"Well, then," said he, "it is a high monor and very honorable office to represent the State of Virginia in the United States Senate, but it is a much higher one to be an embassador of Christ to dying sinners, and I can't come down from a minister of the court of heaven to that of a United States Senator."

He magnified his office, as did Paul, He magnified his office, as did Paul, and so should every other man who bears it in his person; and if he does not do it, he should give it to men who will fuifil its duties and properly appreciate its dignities. Let those preachers who so long to be politicians quit the calling they are ashamed that the lower they like the

When the Canadian grey. hounds begin to leap across the Atlantic new records will be established and a keen relish will be afforded the large section of the public that interested in steamship recordbreaking. It is the boast of the crack New York-Liverpool lines that a passenger can dine in the one city on this Saturday and in the other on the following Saturday. The fast Canadian line will retire this feat into obscurity. The Canadain steamships will enable a man to dine in Quebec on Saturday and in Liverpool on the following Friday. It ought to be possible for a passenger to be landed in Chicago via Quebec in the same time as it takes to make the voyage from Liverpool to New York by the fastest line. The whole merit of the proposed new service consists in the fact that it
