Chicago Futures Rise in Sympathy—Corn and Oats Also Strong With Provisions Inclined to Weaken—Russian Grain Scarcity—Gossip.

Saturday Evening, April 23. Grain and provision markets were rather unsettled today, but on the whole continued the upward trend of the last few days. The chief factor in the strength of these markets is, no doubt, the outbreak of hostilities between Spain and the United States, which has caused a general increase in purchases, but the situation is also given backbone by the real requirements of France and Italy, which countries, it is rumored, will temporarily reduce their imports of grain from the United States.
