SPEECH TO LAST 16 DAYS

One of the Pleasants in Store for Members of the Venezuela Arbitration Commission.

London, June 8.—The Attorney-General, Sir Richard Webster, Q.C., Robt. Thorne, Q.C., the former Attorney-General, and Mr. G. E. Ashwell, the Venezuelan Boundary Commission, started for Paris today. They leave at the end of the week, and the Lord Chief Justice, Baron Russell, of Killowry, and Mr. Richard Henn, Q.C., Lord Justice of Appeal, will leave for the French capital shortly. In order to be present at the opening of the Venezuela boundary arbitration, June 15, Counsel for Venezuela, and Mr. Maitland, Secretary of the Boundary Commission, have statements of the case amounting to 900 pages of closely printed matter in Spanish, Dutch, French and English, accompanied by 200 maps. The opening speech of Sir Richard Webster is expected to last 16 days.

THEY ALL THANK KITCHENER,

With the Exception of Mr. Davitt and a Few Other Irish Nationalists.

London, June 8.—Both the House of Lords and the House of Commons today passed votes of thanks to General Lord Kitchener of Khartoum and the other officers and men engaged in the Sudan campaign. Mr. Michael Davitt, the Irish nationalist for South Mayo, protested and challenged a division, with the result that there were 341 votes in favor of the motion and 20 against it. Mr. A. J. Balfour, the Government leader, remarked that Mr. Davitt attended the House "as an avowed enemy of our country," adding that he understood a British reverse would not break his heart.

NOTES FROM KINGSTON.

Rev. S. Houston Resigns—Salvation
Ladies and Laddie Married.

—Other Items.

Kingston, June 8.—Rev. S. Houston, M.A., pastor for 18 years of Cooke's Free Church, has resigned. He is now in Ireland. Capt. Amy Chappell, Salvation Army, and Philip Blake of Deseronto were married last night, and left for London, Ont.

Napoleon has had to throw $501.28 to James Daly, police magistrate, and $900 to Mr. Carson, the town clerk.

This morning Major Kent, commanding the 14th P. W. M. Rifles, received a formal invitation from Lieut. E. N. Wainwright, commanding the Second Naval Division, Rochester, N.Y., for the regiment to visit that city on July 1.

The heat is intense on the Barreille camp ground, but the nights are cool. The men and horses are kept constantly at work. The vehicle works were sold to-day to John McElroy for $12,500. He will either establish in it a pressed tin manufactory or turn it into an opera house.

A Pretty Wedding.
Seventy-five Borden-street was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon. The contracting parties were Miss Amy A. Pearce, daughter of Mr. J. Pearce, and Mr. William J. Tow of Toronto.

The bride was dressed in white, and the groom in a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Capp, curate of St. Stephen's Church. The bride and groom were surrounded by a large number of guests.

The happy faces, and the voices low,
The bride and groom, with their golden hair,

EDMUND YEIGH IS CHAIRMAN.
A Popular Toronto Man Will Preside Over the Congressionalists.

Brantford, Ont., June 8.—The Congressional Union session opened this morning with devotional exercises, after which the usual routine business was taken up and the election of chairman for the ensuing year was taken by ballot, resulting in the election of Mr. Edmund Yeigh of Toronto. Mr. Yeigh has been in the Union since 1897, and in his early days, the chairman-elect, in a neat speech, thanked the Union for the honor placed on him, after which Mr. Blythe gave an address on the "Students' Home Missionary Society in the Province of Quebec."

Will Have to Lose a Leg.
Belleville, Ont., June 8.—Whit stealing a ride on the C.P.R. this afternoon, William Goyer was thrown from an old tank car by a sudden jolt, and the wheels of the car struck his leg, crushing it. He was taken to the hospital, where it was found that the leg was broken. He will have to lose a leg.

Horseman Killed to Death.
Galt, Ont., June 8.—Andrew Harvie of Kirkville, a well-known horseman, was killed to death this afternoon by a vicious stallion, which he owned, at the farm of Campbell Scott, about 10 miles from here. Deceased was 68 years of age and leaves a widow and grown-up family.

Want the State Cleaned.
Many citizens are anxious to clean up this rolling stone which gathers trash year by year. Aid. Crane sees probabilities of the City Hall being cleaned up. He is a strong advocate of the "clean up" movement, and is doing his best to see that the City Hall is kept clean.

The "Most Unkindest Cut of All"
Was Sent in.

AN INJUNCTION IS ASKED
By Alderman Bowman if the City
Council Passes That Bill of $300
for Lobby Services

TO PREVENT ITS PAYMENT TO HIM.

The Bill Overdraft Increase System
Which Toronto's Mayor
Would Now Inaugurate.

John Shaw's municipal aims are exacting heavy consequences. He had trouble enough ahead meeting overdrafts, caused by last year's reckless slashing of estimates. He has had plenty of other "unkindest cuts of all" when his old-time supporter and fellow-campaigner, C. C. Robinson, so inopportunistly presented his little bill for mysterious services so mysteriously solicited.

The quiet talk about town and at civic centres of thought is that the incident at Wednesday's Board of Control meeting was the hardest knock the Mayor has yet received.

Ald. Bowman has turned the indignation into concrete form. He dictated yesterday afternoon the following note to The World's stenographer:

Ald. Bowman has instructed his solicitor, Mr. E. W. Owen, to issue an injunction against the City, should the City Council recommend the payment of the C. C. Robinson account.

The affidavit sworn to by Ald. Bowman is a masterpiece of brevity and force. It states that the City Council has passed a resolution authorizing the payment of the C. C. Robinson account, and that the Mayor has refused to do so.
