the Senior Torontos played sixteen of the Young Torontos, should put the Torontos in spiendid fettle for their first championship game at home next Saturday against the Cornwalls. Hard, earnest work was indulged in, and the practice was by long odds the best so far this season. The Young Torontos played as only juniors aspiring for a chance on the senior team can play. They had the advantage in numbers and made the seniors exert themselves all the time.

Pick Lillie, Charlie Tobin, Ken Peaker and Jimmy Murray of the Torontos figured on the junior team. Peaker was out for the first time this season. The senior twelve was the same with perhaps one cyception that will meet the Cornwalls. Clewes was in goal, Hanley having gone back home to Orillia. George Wheeler was in uniform and played at coverpoint. Persy McBride of the Young Torontos made his initial appearance on the senior team. He was placed at first defence.

The teams were as follows:
Torontos: Goal, Clewes: point, Yorke; cover, Wheeler; defence, McBride, Stewart, Lambe; centre, Fred Moran; home, Her, Shell, Frank Moran, Querrle, Greatrix.

Young Torontos: Jeffries, Tobin, Nasmith, Pringle, Cooper, Love, Peaker, Mara, Vortice, Prof. Moran, Bowers, Lillie, Milne, Newby.

ARGONAUT FOURS ROW DEAD HEAT ed Together-Semi-Finals and

The third and fourth heats of the Argo nauts' spring races were rowed yesterday afternoon over a good course, with hardly one of the greatest races of the year, will be run. The field will be small but select. Everyone was hoping for this clear day and a dry track. The public eyes are upon three horses in the race—Ethelbert, Jean Beraud and Imp. They want to see one of these horses crowned the undisputed ruler of the turf. Ethelbert will be the favorite, with Imp and Jean Beraud probably equal choices in the betting.

Sheepshead Bay entries: First race, 5½ furlongs—Futurfity course—Hengist, Dublin, Frank Erne, Competitor, Dr. Barlow, Ethles, Schoolmaster, Prince Stonemouth, Telamon, The Rhymer 118, The Trigger, Jilis Greenwood, Bengal, Snark, Great Amaron, Filishebeth M. Princess Evelyn, Gany-

Canoe Club's Haces To-Day.

Everybody will be at the waterfront this afternoon. The Canoe Club will run off their novice single race at 2.30, the intermediate singles at 3 o'clock, and will then hold a tilting tournament, which, from the number of entires, promises to provide heaps of fun for those present. Then, at 8 o'clock, there will be one of the club's delightful hops for members only and their lady friends. The club's new war canoe will likely be here, so all the racing men will please turn out. The crews for Commodore v. Vice-Commodore practice will be:
