The novelty is over now, however, and you go ahead, and out the door at the other end of the room, and await the order to unmask.

Some days elapse, and finally you read your name on the battalion order paper as having passed the test and you be come the proud possessor of a certificate which states that you are efficient in the use of the gas mask, and that you have "Passed Through Gas."

One Phase of intensive System,
This is only one small example of the highly efficient system under which the men are trained at Carling Heights camp, but it will suffice to illustrate the thoroughness and the up-to-the-minute methods used throughout the course. When a man'arrives, a raw "rookie" in camp, he is placed in a class with other men of the rockie class, and as he masters the work given him each week, he progresses by easy steps until the rawness has disappeared and in its stead is confidence and readiness.
