Camp Men Beaten.

The camp men were beaten yesterday by 43 points at the long-distance ranges by a picked team from the Huron County Rifle Association.

The reason the team from camp give is that the agreement made with the association was that the Ross rifle was to be used, and as all the different regiments in camp are not served with the Ross rifle as yet, they claim that they were at an unfair advantage in using a rifle that to them was a perfect Mr. and Mrs. Lamb will reside in East stranger.
