Hon. Mr. Tarte, in discussing purchase of La Presse, gives currency to a question he has been asked.

Montreal, Que., Dec. 19.—(Special)—Hon. Mr. Tarte is determined to take a hand in the famous affair.

"If La Presse is well informed," says Mr. Tarte, "as soon as La Presse deal was known at Ottawa an attempt was made to disintegrate the purchasers, we believe in fact the government was ready to give them $50,000 on their bargain. The fear of a large drop in the paper's circulation prevented La Presse and prevents it yet from adopting a radical change in its policy."

"Mr. Berthiaume was not accompanied by Mr. Greenfield," was concluded at Mr. Greenfield's residence, and we are agreed that all the details had been decided upon. Mr. Danereau was seen for whom an agreement was made to remain which Mr. Danereau was to receive a salary of $10,000 per annum. Then the Telegraph and the Montreal Star, which Mr. Danereau made certain concessions to Mr. Danereau to allow it to remain in the hands of the absolute director of the paper."

Forget Not There. Hon. Mr. Tarte is not one of the promoters of La Presse, although he cannot say for Mr. Danereau, M.P. He says that it was with the money of Messrs. Graham and Russell that La Presse was started.

"For several months," La Presse had sought to get control of La Presse. They believed in good faith that it was for Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It will be remembered in fact that in the midst of the campaign La Presse supported the liberal government, which it had violently criticized up to that time. Messrs. Russell and Graham believed in the possibility of Sir Wilfrid's defeat. This is why they bought La Presse. The Telegraph and the Montreal Star had resigned any hope, because his position had become untenable, but who was influenced to resign at the same time La Presse passed out to the hands of Messrs. Graham and Russell."

What of the Future? Hon. Mr. Tarte then asks what will become of La Presse, replying as follows: "La Presse is an excellent commercial property and Mr. Danereau, who has been in the paper for one of the oldest journalists of the country, he for many years the political director of La Presse, the confidant of Sir George Cartier and the intimate ally of Chapeau. He rallied to Sir Wilfrid Laurier when he retired. Following the resignation of Mr. Tarte he went to Mr. Danereau, to whom Sir Wilfrid had addressed himself when he wished to communicate his thoughts to the French element of the Dominion."

Mr. Danereau upon his return to Canada will explain the publication of the letter addressed to him by Mr. Russell and given to La Presse. How did the letter happen to be in his hands? WE ARE ASSURED, IN FACT, THAT THERE WERE BUT TWO COPIES AND ONE OF THEM OF IMPORTANCE ASKED US YESTERDAY IF IT WERE TRULY THE MRS. CHADWICK'S AND LORD DUNDONALD HAD SUBSCRIBED TO THE ELECTORAL CAMPAIGN OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY AND HAD CONTRIBUTED TO THE PURCHASE OF LA PRESSE. The strongest suppositions have been put in circulation. Hon. Mr. Tarte's explanation is slight error relative to the number of copies of the letter in question. There were in fact three copies for Hon. Mr. Berthiaume, one for Mr. Danereau and the third for Mr. Russell."

INTEREST IN ENGLAND. (Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Dec. 19.—The intelligence of the Canadian cotton combine created considerable interest in Manchester, but in the absence of full particulars the leading merchants will not venture an opinion. The general impression is that the position of the English spinners will not be affected. A slight rise in the price of the news at Liverpool the market remained entirely unaffected. The Elder Dempster line offer to purchase all the ships of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Line were refused.

But little of Mrs. Chadwick's jewelry that creditors think she has, or of a missing trunk and value the receiver desires to find. The examination is to be held at two of the witnesses, Emil Hoover, Mrs. Chadwick's son, and Freda Scanlon, her maid, controverted about these articles. Mr. Dawley asked the court to visit the jail, but before Remington did not have time to do so. Mr. Greenman said he did not want to cause Mrs. Chadwick any unnecessary embarrassment, but he had been advised by physicians she was in condition to go to court. He therefore Remington then suggested that the physician visit Mrs. Chadwick to-morrow, and announce his decision concerning her appearance before the court. Dr. Wall, the jail physician, said today that Mrs. Chadwick was in better condition than she has been for several days. She was somewhat weak this morning, but felt better during the afternoon.

CLAIMS FRAUD IN CONTRACT FOR TOUR OF BLACK WATCH

Stewart Houston Files Reply and Counter Claims for $6000 Against Industrial Exhibition Ass'n.

An aftermath of the tour of the Black Watch Band in Canada is found in the suit which is now pending between the Industrial Exhibition Association and Stewart Houston. The Industrial Exhibition Association claims the sum of $2517 which, they say, is a balance due to them on the tour of the Black Watch Band.

In his statement of defence, Houston alleges that he was induced to sign the contract by misrepresentation and fraud, and that the Industrial Exhibition Association stated that they were paying the band the sum of $2500 a week, and that the contract for the tour was made on that basis. Houston after the band went on tour the industrial exhibition Association were discovered that he had discovered the Industrial Exhibition Association were paying the band $1000 a week instead of $2500, as was stated in the contract.

Houston claims that he has paid the association all the amount called for by the contract, after deducting the difference between the actual salary paid the band and the fictitious amount, under this contract he has already paid the sum of $2000. It was the association who brought out the Black Watch Band to Canada, and they furnished it out for four weeks for a tour of Canada to Stewart Houston. They received a sum sufficient to pay all the expenses of the band from the time they left Scotland till their return, and a small profit in addition. This amount was paid for by the tour arranged by Houston, who states that his expenses for the entire tour were over $22,000.

The defendant in his claim, claims the sum of $6000 for this misrepresentation and fraud in reference to the character of the band.

LETTER IN FULL

Rev. D. C. Hossack, pastor of Deer Park Presbyterian Church, writes the following open letter to Premier Ross: The Hon. George W. Ross, Premier of Ontario:

Honorable Sir—You are appealing to the people of Ontario for their judgment upon your stewardship. I desire to express my opinion in advance of the general verdict. What I have to say you should hear. Your position, and the occasion, make you a fair mark for criticism. My remarks may awaken you to a sense of your true position, and enable you to see yourself as you are, but, knowing you as I do, I have my doubts.

What I have no personal end to serve by this letter, I confess that I would be glad to see you prosecuted for your stewardship.

It has been well said that "the administration of justice has fallen in the street." You make loud professions and continue to be a receiver of stolen goods. You are at least too weak and vacillating to remain premier of Ontario.

When you "disappear" the evil why do you not prosecute the culprits?
