at liberty (with the consent of the Managers), to dismisss them from service. All cases of disobedience to the orders of the Matron by the inmates to be represented to the Managers.

X. The objects of the charity shall consist of three Regulations classes-1st. Orphans; 2nd. Children without a Father; mission of Preference shall be 3rd. Children without a Mother. made of applicants in the above order. All applications for the admission of children shall be made in writing to the Managers (under cover to the Secretary), and must be approved of by them; and the admission of the different classes shall be according to the priority of the applica-The election of the candidates for admission shall tions. be determined by the Managers at their monthly meetings, and to such an extent as the funds of the Society will admit. Any of the Managers may, nevertheless, in their discretion, admit children into the house in thu interim, subject to such approval. Children admitted into the Home shall remain under the care of the Matron for at least one year previous to their being apprenticed, unless circumstances may require this rule to be deviated from.

XI. Children are to be retained in the Home until Regulations they are twelve years of age, unless a particularly good ticing Chilsituation should offer for a child of an earlier age, when the case may be discretionary with the Managers. The friends of the children are allowed the privilege of procuring situations for them, if they can do so on as favourable terms as the Managers. Subscribers to the Society shall always have the preference in the choice of appren-Children on attaining the age of twelve years may tices. be apprenticed to such worthy Protestant families as give satisfactory evidence to the Managers, by the certificates of clergymen, that they are proper persons to have charge of orphan children. They may also be apprenticed to any trade, provided the same satisfactory evidence be adduced regarding the character of those to whom they

for the ad-