But 10 more shopping days remain before Christmas. So the time for selection of gifts is rapidly passing. The weather man is kindly, the store-keepers are eager to serve and Saint John merchants have all that is requisite to satisfy the most simple and the most exacting tastes. There will be found timely suggestions in the following notes resulting from a further shopping tour of Times-Star reporters.

Fredericton, was the preacher in St. Paul's church yesterday in the absence of Ven. Archdeacon Crowfoot, who is conducting special services in Prince Edward Island. Dean Neales' able sermons were heard with much appreciation.
