

SUMMER SCHOOL AT ROTHESAY IS ANNOUCEMENT

Mrs. J. F. Robertson Unanimous Choice As Diocesan President

Reports In Connection With Women's Auxiliary Work Submitted

This morning's session of the Diocesan Women's Auxiliary at Saint John's church was marked by addresses by Rev. A. L. Fleming and Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, and by the submission of reports on the work. During the noon hour balloting for officers took place. The result will be announced tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. James F. Robertson has been unanimously returned as president.

Previous to the business meeting, a quiet hour was conducted by Rev. J. V. Young. The session proper opened with a short prayer led by Mrs. Richardson, wife of the Bishop. Mrs. James F. Robertson presided in the chair.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot announced that a summer school for women workers of the church would be held at Rothesay Collegiate School, commencing Wednesday, June 23, and continuing until the following Sunday evening. It would be under the leadership of the Bishop and other prominent readers of the church in Canada would be present, including Canon Gould, Canon Sowerby, Canon Vernon, and Rev. J. H. A. Holmes. Returned missionaries who would be present were Rev. Cuthbert Robinson, of Japan, Rev. Hamilton and others.

Miss Mabel Fairweather, secretary-treasurer of the Living Message, reported 1,392 subscribers, an increase of 78. The financial statement showed receipts: Balance, $48.55, and disbursements $89.

Mrs. J. Lee Day, secretary-treasurer of "Little Helpers" told of increased membership. The sum of $240 was raised by this department. Mrs. Robertson paid a tribute to Mrs. Day, who was retiring from office.

Mrs. J. Roy Campbell made the Extra Cent a Day report, which showed an increase of 19 cents. At present there was the sum of $178 for distribution.

Miss John Hay spoke on the disposal of life membership fees, which amounted to $225.

Mrs. Corbitt Robinson read the report of the convener of literature. It showed that 51 W. A. and 18 girls' branches had classes. The financial report showed receipts $177.78, and the disbursements $75.70.

PRIZE PRESENTED.

Mrs. Thomas Walker, a life member and charter member, presented to Miss Lillian Myles, as representative of St. John's church at Nashwaak, a prize for that branch having won the missionary study competition.

Rev. A. L. Fleming, rector of the church, gave an inspiring message from the text "He appeared in another form."

Luncheon was served in the basement of the hall by ladies of Trinity, St. James and St. Mary's churches, with Miss K. S. Allan, Mrs. Berton Waring and Mrs. Alexander, convener, in the order named. Mrs. H. G. Francis was general convener, with Miss Katie Bates as assistant.

TORONTO, Ont.—The National Executive Council of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association has decided that the fifty-fifth annual general meeting of the association would take place in Toronto on June 8, 9 and 10. Principals In Saint John Wedding Today

MISS DOREEN GILLIS MCAVITY

MAJOR GERALD G. ANGLIN, M. C.

Major G. G. Anglin and Miss Doreen Gillis McAvity Wed

This afternoon in Trinity church at 4:30 o'clock the marriage of Miss Doreen Gillis McAvity, elder daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. James L. McAvity, to Major Gerald G. Anglin, M. C., second son of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Anglin, Lancaster avenue, West Saint John, was solemnized, Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, rector, performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and Easter lilies, which barked the chancel steps and altar rail and Easter lilies tied with white tulle, marked the pews reserved for the friends of the contracting parties, and the same flowers with white snapdragons were used in the altar vases.

The bride, who entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage, was met at the door by the full vested choir which preceded her to the chancel. J. S. Ford presided at the organ and under his direction, the choir sang "The Voice that Breathed 'O'er Eden," as the bride entered the church, and "O Perfect Love" while the register was being signed.

THE BRIDE'S DRESS.

The youthful bride made a charming picture in her wedding gown of an early period, of ivory satin and lace. Her veil, which had been worn by her grandmother, Mrs. John Gillis on her wedding day, was of unadorned net, and was arranged in cap effect, caught at the sides with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Viola McAvity was her sister's only attendant. She wore a becoming gown of pink taffeta trimmed with bands of mauve velvet ribbon, a mauve picture hat and carried purple Darwin tulips. E. B. Harter acted as groomsmen, and Darryl Peters, Ronald Jones, Percival Streeter and H. Briggs of Halifax were the ushers.

As the wedding party left the church to the strains of the wedding march, they were met at the door by the fellow officers of Major Anglin in the Saint John Fusiliers, who made an arch with their swords, under which Major and Mrs. Anglin passed to their waiting motor.

An informal reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride, 83 Hassen street, at which only the immediate relatives were present. Major and Mrs. Anglin will leave on the evening train for New York and other U. S. cities, and on their return will reside at Rothesay for the summer.

The bride will travel in a tailored suit of navy blue tulle, a blue blouse and scarf and French model hat.

A beautiful array of wedding gifts evidenced the popularity of the bride and bridegroom.

Major Anglin enlisted during the Great War in the 64th Battalion and sailed from Halifax under Lieut. Col. H. Montgomery-Campbell. He was later transferred to the 26th Battalion and was twice wounded and afterwards was invalided to Canada. He won the M. C. at Vimy Ridge and had services at Pashendale. Major Anglin is a barrister of the firm of Barnhill, Sandford and Harrison.

World News In Short Metre

HALIFAX—Mrs. Geoffrey Morrow, of Halifax, was elected president of the Nova Scotia Chapter of the Imperial Daughters of the Empire at the annual meeting held here yesterday. The convention took a firm stand against moving pictures that do not from a patriotic standpoint do justice to Canada.

PARIS—A provisional Franco-Belgian debt agreement has been reached, according to Le Temps, by which France will pay £2,000,000 on September 30, 1926, and another £2,000,000 on March 31, 1927.

AWAY FOR SUMMER

The Canadian Government Merchant Marine office here will be closed tomorrow afternoon for the season. Walter Miller, chief clerk, who has been acting as port agent since G. K. McNab left last week for Quebec, and R. W. Lyden, cashier, will leave tomorrow night for Montreal.

FERRY BEGINS WORK

The Gondola Point ferry commenced running on Monday in charge of Captain Pitt as the Kenebecensis had opened up along the ferry's route. The ice above and below the ferry route was reported as still holding this morning. A man with a horse and light team crossed a short distance from Gondola Point, but this was looked on as dangerous.

SELLING SEIZED GOODS.

Tenders have been called for by the customs authorities for two touring cars, a sedan and a roadster, which were captured last year by officials as the cars were transporting contraband liquor. A wagon and set of harness, captured by officers near Five Fathom Hole last season hauling liquor, are also being disposed of. About 1,000 pounds of old rope, seized last year while being smuggled ashore from a steamer are being sold.

LITTLE RIVER CARDS

The Little River Community Club held a successful card party and dance at their hall last evening. There was a good attendance and delicious refreshments were served. Prizes were won by Mrs. R. H. Williamson, Miss A. Hart, Mrs. E. Marshall, R. H. Williamson, G. Matheson and W. Clark.

On Monday evening at Bayview Hall, Little River, 11 tables of forty were given, including a prize pillow from the family star, from brothers and sister-in-laws; wreath, from Police Department, Mrs. 252 and Leonard Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Kierstead and family; Mabae family (grandchildren); Mr. and Mrs. S. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McColgan, nephew and niece; crecent, John's family; Sprays, Ronald and James (grandchildren); Miss M.
