THE HOLIDAY IN NOVA SCOTIA

Halifax had a Procession - The Shelburne Shipyards Did Not Observe Day

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 3 - Labor Day in Halifax was favored with fine but cold weather. The Halifax district trades and labor council managed a big procession in the forenoon and in the afternoon they held sports on the exhibition grounds which drew an attendance of about 3,000. The Socials defeated the Standards in two baseball games in the professional league. At over the province the town observed the day, except Shelburne, where according to a dispatch, the shipyards and other establishments were in full swing as though there were no holiday.

Two exhibition baseball games were played in Stellarton and Westville, one each won by each team.

STYLE OF GIRL'S DRESS MADE TROUBLE IN CHURCH

Rome, Sept. 3 - Mgr. Liviero, bishop of Citta Di Castello, on the Tiber, was addressing the members of the cathedral there, when he noticed a girl wearing a short waist with sleeves which he considered far too short. He interrupted the ceremony and called on her to withdraw. As his advice was not followed, and as the girl remained in the cathedral after the service the bishop walked up to her and attempted to eject her.

Several young men, including the son of an Italian deputy, at once took the girl's part and the bishop, seething to the emergency, by the evening a demonstration took place before the episcopal palace, and when Mgr. Liviero appeared at a window, intending to address the populace, he was pelted with tomatoes and other vegetables.

DIES AT TWENTY-SIX; HAD WASTED FORTUNE

Childs Was One of the Most Spectacular Spenders Broadway Has Seen

New York, Sept. 3 - Irving W. Childs, one of the most spectacular spenders along the "Great White Way" is dead of old age at the age of twenty-six. Within a few years Childs squandered $800,000 on actresses and thoughtless women who frequent the luxurious resorts.

Broadway habitues mourned over the passing of Childs because the death removed one of the most spectacular characters that ever burned up a fortune.

Until he became ill several months ago Childs lived at the Hotel Rector. The youthful spendthrift was a son of the late William H. H. Childs, who left a big fortune. Young Childs soon ran through the legacy which fell to him and within five years he was penniless. Then another fortune, this time $200,000, came to him. It took less than two years for this amount to go. He was married, but divorced from his wife.

BRUSH FACTORY SITE ARRANGED FOR

The request of the Canada Brush Company for the use of three lots in Duke street for the site of their proposed new factory has been approved by the city. The matter was before the commissioners at their meeting today and a satisfactory agreement is understood to have been reached. Another matter under discussion was the question of the city leasing the No. 7 wharf and warehouse from the Dominion government. A communication was sent to Ottawa.

LABOR DAY OUTING WAS MUCH ENJOYED

The pleasant weather conditions yesterday helped to the success of the Labor Day picnic conducted by the Trades and Labor Council, to Belyea Point. The picnic of picknickers was large. The grounds were in perfect condition and everything was as admirable for a pleasant outing. Dinner and supper were served. During the afternoon a very interesting programme of sports and games was carried out.

A meeting of delegates from 17 unions in different parts of the province was held here yesterday and arrangements were completed for the formation of a provincial federation of labor. Temporary officers were elected as follows: - President J. J. Donovan, St. John; vice-president P. D. Ayer, Moncton; secretary-treasurer Neil Savage, Moncton.

Not Seriously Ill

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 3 - In view of the many reports that John Wamamaker is near death, his family issued a statement that he has been only slightly ill at the home of his son, Rodman, here. Dr. John B. Deaver performed a minor operation on him and it is expected that he will be able to get back to his business soon.

TOOK WATCHES ALSO

There were no new developments today in the robbery which took place in the store of John H. Hamilton in Wall street Sunday night, although the police are diligently working in the case. It is understood that besides the money which was taken from the safe, two watches were taken from the store, but were found lying on the ground outside the store. It is not known exactly how much money was not follow unless it is like: I am going to lead you." - Lor' Selborne.
