

STATEMENT BY ALEX. CORBET

The Times has been requested to publish the following:
"It has come to my attention from many directions that a story is being circulated, that I have promised, if elected, to immediately take steps toward the dismissal of permanent city officials.
"I feel sure that my friends and business associates need no assurance from me that I would not make any such rash promises, or decide the fate of officials in such a peremptory manner. To the general public I wish to say I have made no such promises nor have I any intention of attempting to carry out such a plan."
Yours truly,
ALEX. CORBET.

NEW INTEREST IN ELECTION AROUSED

Entry of Young Men Into Civic Politics Stimulates Voting.

A record vote was cast at the last primaries. Why? There was no big vital issue.

True, the people want Hydro continued. The young men did and do stand squarely for Hydro.

But the real stimulus was the energy which the young men injected into the campaign.

Elect Ralph G. McInerney as a commissioner and that same energy will stir the slumbering state of City Hall.

Vote for two commissioners—one of them, McInerney.

Dishwashing—with dainty hands

NOT possible, you say? Perhaps it wasn't, before Lux was discovered for dishwashing. But now, Lux, with its instant soapy suds, not only cleans your dishes thoroughly, but is as easy on the hands as the finest toilet soap.

Ordinary soaps or washing powders are too hard on the skin, making it rough and red. The ingredients in Lux are helpful to the hands and skin—the Lux suds if constantly used will keep the skin smooth as Nature intended. You can do your own dishes, and not be ashamed of your hands, because they will never show that they have been in the dishpan.

Just a single teaspoonful is sufficient for your breakfast or lunch dishes—you may possibly have to use two teaspoonfuls for your dinner dishes. Try it just once. You will be so delighted that you will want to use it always.

LUX
For all fine laundering

Lux is economical for all dish-washing. One packet contains sufficient for 54 dish-washings—nearly all the dishes for three weeks.

Lux is sold only in sealed packets—dustproof!
