

PROCLAMATION BY NEW CHANCELLOR

Ebert Addresses Himself to
"Citizens" of Germany

CALL FOR UNITY

Says People's Government
Will Seek to Bring About
Peace "As Quickly As Possible" and "Confirm Liberty Gained."

Washington, Nov. 10.—Friedrich Ebert, upon assuming office yesterday as chancellor, issued a proclamation, announcing that the new government at Berlin had taken charge of business to prevent civil war and famine. In a manifesto addressed to the "citizens" of Germany, the chancellor said he was going to form a people's government to bring about peace, "as quickly as possible," and to confirm the liberty which the government had gained. The text of the proclamation and the manifesto were sent out by the German wireless station at Nauen, and picked up today by naval radio stations in this country.

The text of it.
The proclamation said: "New government has taken charge of business in order to preserve German people from civil war and famine, and in order to enforce its just claims of self-determination. This task I only can accomplish if all authorities in all civil offices in towns, in landed districts lend it their helpful hands."

"I know it will be hard for many to co-operate with new men who now have to lead the business of the empire. But I appeal to their love for our people. If organization of public life stops in this serious hour, then Germany would be prey of anarchy and most terrible misery. Therefore, lend together with me your help to our country by continuing to work in fearless and unrelenting manner, everybody in his position until the hour has come that relieves us of our duty."

The Manifesto.
The text of the manifesto follows:
"Citizens! Former Chancellor Prince Max, of Baden, with assent of all the secretaries has charged me to carry on the business of chancellor.
"I am going to form a new government, with parties and shall report with in brief delay about results to the public. The new government will be a government of the people. Its endeavor must be to bring to the people peace as quickly as possible and to confirm the liberty which it has gained.
"Citizens! I ask for the assistance of you all in the heavy task which awaits us. You know how seriously war threatens the provisioning of the people which is the first condition of political life. Political revolution ought not to disturb the provisioning of food districts nor disturb production of food nor its transportation into towns, but to foster it. Scarcity of food means looting and plundering, with misery for all. The poorest would suffer in the most heavy fashion. Working men in industries would be hit most severely. Whosoever takes away food or other objects of necessity or means of transportation necessary for the distribution commits the heaviest sin against all.
"Citizens! I urge you all to leave the streets, and provide for quiet and order."

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If Feverish, Bilious, Constipated,
Give Fruit Laxative
At Once

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "sides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

FIREMEN BUSY.

The fire department had a busy week-end being called out three times. On Saturday night about 6:20 o'clock an alarm was sent in from box 8 to extinguish a slight blaze in the John McGoldrick premises at 69-63 Smyth street. The fire started in some old bits of marine stores and was caused by rats which it is alleged had eaten some matches. Little damage resulted. Scarcely had the all-out been rung when a still alarm was sent in for a chimney fire in the house of T. W. Wyman, in Sydney street. Again last night about 7 o'clock the department were called to a fire in the lower flat of a three-story house at the foot of Portland street, owned by James S. Gregory. Herbert Young occupies the lower flat. Very little damage was caused.
