 they would permit the admission of a single Canadian to the United States and its possession."
 Forgetting People.
 Resolution No. 134 by Andrew Farnish, V. A. Olander, and L. N. Hylan, of the Seamen's Union, was adopted. The resolution provides that the convention "compliment the Seaman upon their unchanged and undiminished patriotism, their self-sacrifice to America's interest and their loyalty to the principles of human freedom" and further states, "that because we have not forgotten the service of the seamen during the war, we are hereby reminding the American people of that service and of the promises then made to them to the end that other workers here and elsewhere may realize the true value of such promises and withal have made ready to meet similar treatment."

Constructive Demands.
 The convention also approved efforts to secure modification of the method of amending the U. S. constitution; condemned the idea of fixing wages by law for adult male workers; commended the executive officers for the growing usefulness of A. F. of L. publications; commended the work in the field of education done by Former Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton and Arthur Holder, former labor members of the Federal Board for Vocational Education; recommended the educational programme adopted at Atlantic City; commended the growth and success of schools under trade union auspices; demanded relief from school shortages, declaring, "The public school must be maintained as a civic model, not permitted to become a symbol of degradation;" and condemned enactment of the so-called Lusk bill in New York, "to place the thinking of teachers under the control of bureaucratic official" and called upon labor everywhere to be "on the alert everywhere and constantly against insidious efforts to pervert the schools."

Article 2, Section 2—That all resolutions for the consideration of the Congress shall be received by the Secretary-Treasurer not later than ten days prior to the opening of the Convention, the same to be printed and issued at the opening session of the Congress. Resolutions submitted in duplicate and in triplicate can only be introduced and dealt with by the Congress, on a two-thirds vote of the delegates attending the Convention. The Secretary shall be composed of the members whose per diem allowance for services shall be ten dollars.

Credentials.
 Article 2, Section 3—Notice of the election of delegates, together with their names and addresses and the number of members in the organization they represent, shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Congress at least ten days before the date of meeting of said Congress. Credentials must be made out on duplicate forms, furnished by the Secretary of the Congress, and be forwarded to said Secretary, and the other presented at the meeting to the Chairman of the Committee on Credentials.

Representation—Election of Delegates.
 Article 2, Section 3, Sec. 1.—The Congress shall be composed of delegates duly elected and accredited from Provincial Federations of Labor, International Local Trades Unions, whose per capita tax is paid from headquarters on their total Canadian membership in good standing, Trades Unions, Federal Labor Unions and National Trades Unions in the Dominion of Canada. But in no case shall there be more than one Central Body in any city to be chartered by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

GREAT PROGRAMME OF BOXING BOUTS FOR TORONTO'S TWELFTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.

TORONTO—Not the least important part of the celebration on the twelfth of July will be the boxing bouts in the evening at the Arena, held under the auspices of His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans. Some of the best exponents of the art of pugilism, not only in Canada but in Great Britain, will appear in the several bouts which are being arranged, and the card, it is expected, will be the best that has been presented in the Queen City for many a long day. For one thing, it will mark the reappearance here of Freddie Jacks, the sterling English boxer, who made such a splendid impression upon lovers of the manly sport when he boxed Frankie Fleming here some time ago at the Arena.

Another boy, who is a great favorite locally, will figure in the programme in Teddy Joyce, the native son, who has designs upon the championship in his particular division and who has improved so much since he has been under the care of Trainer Goodman, who handled Jack Dempsey for his bout with Willard. Both Joyce and his father are true blue Orangemen, and that is the reason that His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans made special efforts to secure him for the big show. Joyce is willing to meet anybody the association may select, from Jack Sharkey to Frankie Daley. Another feature contemplated is a bout between the champions of the local police and firefighters forces.

It will be a popular prize show, with $2 the highest price charged. This will be for ringside and box seats; all the other seats will be one dollar, and it will be a case of first come first served.
