Mr. Lister, continuing, repeated that the department was reeking with corruption. If I am unable to proceed as I like, I will drop the charge and leave the matter to the committee. I tell you that the country will not stand this. Your day of reckoning is coming.

Hon. Mr. Foster-They have come often before ; yet. here we are.

Mr. Lister-But your day is near now. You will have to answer to the great tribunal of the country. He charged that the Secretary of State knew what the document contained, and that was why he was afraid to allow it to be produced. Hon. Mr. Tupper-You yourself know so little about it that you cannot point out the particular portion which you want o prove.

Mr. Lister—I have told you that I man prove that there has been a corrupt bargain. If a tithe of the evidence I have in my pocket is true, I can prove that the document has a direct bearing on the Hon. Mr. Foster-Bring on your proof? Mr. Lister-Bring my proof ? Oh, you wise man. How can I adduce proof unless you allow me to bring it.

The Chairman read his ruling as follows :---

"The objection taken yesterday against the document being put in evidence was again taken. The Chairman ruled the objection was well taken, that the document was not a proper one to be placed before the Public Accounts Committee, but should more properly be brought before leadership of the Conservatives of that province.
