EGBERT W. THOMPSON

ST. JOHN'S BOY PREACHER

Who is Reported to be Doing Excellent Work on the Gibson Circuit is Only Seventeen Years Old.

During the past summer the Methodists living in the Gibson circuit in York County have had among them Egbert W. Thompson, who is now known as the wonderful boy preacher. Whenever he speaks in public he is listened to by large crowds, and he is considered one of the most fluent and convincing speakers in the province.

Mr. Thompson, the boy preacher as he is called, is seventeen years old and belongs to this city. He is the son of the late Fred Thompson and resides with his mother at 131 Duke street. This is his first experience as a preacher and he has entered into the practice of his profession without any special training. He will enter Mount Allison University in the fall, and after completing his course there intends becoming a medical missionary.

Rev. J. C. Harris, the superintendent of the Gibson circuit, speaks of Mr. Thompson in the most eulogistic terms. Mr. Harris says in a letter to Rev. H. D. Marr that Mr. Thompson's preaching is a surprise to his auditors, and his extreme modesty makes him very popular.

A brilliant future in the ecclesiastical world is predicted for Mr. Thompson.

WILL SHORTLY RETURN TO

HER WESTERN HOME

Mrs. Charles Nichols, formerly Mrs. Price, of North End, who has been visiting friends and relatives here for several weeks, will start on her return to her home in Oakland, California, next Tuesday. Mrs. Herbert Price, who accompanied Mrs. Nichols east, will visit in Fredericton all winter.

Mrs. Nichols' husband, who is a contractor in Oakland, has large crews of men at work in the rebuilding of devastated San Francisco, as well as the outstanding sections of Oakland, across the ferry. Oakland's population actually doubled after the terrible catastrophe in the big city across the bay from it, and building operations are consequently going by gigantic strides.

Both Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Price like their new home very much, and would be sorry indeed to forfeit the healthful influences of the climate by taking up their abode again in the east.

WITH FALL AND WINTER GOODS ARRIVING and demanding storage room we find it necessary to hold a special sale of all our summer lawn and linen waists, though the season is not yet over. In order to add to the attractiveness of the event we are including some dozens of handsome new lawn waists secured a short time ago at a snap quotation. Even though we were without this special-purchase lot the display of handsomely-trimmed garments would be very tempting, particularly the Irish Linen qualities with their rich deft embroidery.

The Special Lot of Lawn Waists at $1 and $1.25.
Here we have a manufacturer's bargain assortment, something with which we can wind up a very successful season by giving everybody a present of a lovely waist at about half price. The lawn is of the best, charmingly embroidered, tucked and lace inserted. A maze of new patterns. Collars attached, three-quarter sleeves and buttons at the back or front as desired. Sizes 32 to 44 bust. Only about fifteen dozen in the lot.

Irish Linen Blouse Waists, $1.75 to $4.00. Most ladies know full well that these are ridiculously low prices for such exquisite goods. A few weeks ago—even a week ago—they could not be purchased for dollars more. The embroidery in itself is worth the money, and when it is understood these waists formerly sold at from $3.00 to $7.50 an appreciation of the great value may be had. Besides the art needlework on these waists there are lavish platings, tuckings, etc. The sleeves are long or short, as preferred, and the buttoning at back or front.

Special in Ladies' Cotton Undervests, 15c and 20c each.
Something catchy in the bargain line for Monday shoppers in the Underwear Department. These vests have short sleeves, high neck and long sleeves. Lace trimment.
