A new cheese factory at Belfast, P. E. I., with its contents, was burned on Thursday. Loss $1,200; no insurance. It was only handed over to the owners by the contractor on the previous night. Incendiarism suspected.

The Quebec government has offered a reward of one thousand dollars for the detection of the Ely murderers, and this reward has been supplemented by five hundred dollars offered by Mr. H. O. Ely, son of the murdered man.

Mr. Swanson, Government immigration agent, operating in the New England States, says he is meeting with great success. This year already he has sent five parties to the North-West, and he will have another party about the middle of July.

"Is this hot enough for you?" is a silly question; but if you meet a man who complains of suffering from the heat, ten to one you will find, on inquiry, that he does not use Ayer's Sarsaparilla to tone up his system and drive his blood from irritating humors.

In the Montreal Board of Trade rooms, on Wednesday, Solicitor-General Curran presented Capt. Casey, of the Beaver Line steamer Lake Huron, and the officers and men who manned the lifeboat that rescued the crew of the barque Kate Conn, with suitable recognitions of their bravery.

While the Corpus Christi procession was passing through the streets of Ottawa on Sunday week, one man in the crowd, who it was subsequently learned was new, and did not understand the nature of the ceremony, did not remove his hat. For this he was brutally beaten by a Roman Catholic cabman.

Miss Lizzie Chamberlain, employed as a domestic servant at Smith's Falls, Ont., cut the top of her thumb slightly several days ago. The injury was not properly attended to, and blood poisoning resulted. The entire hand swelled till the skin broke, paralysis ensued, and death finally relieved the sufferer.

An action in the Supreme Court has been commenced by Miss Mary El. Cousins against the Western Counties Railway Co. for damages received at Digby Station last fall, owing to the alleged insufficient lighting of the said station, whereby she fell from the platform to the rails and received severe injuries.

As will be seen by reference to his advertisement in this issue, S. G. Snell, Esq., has removed his business college from Windsor, N. S., to Truro, N. S. As Truro is a central point, near the location of Mr. Snell's school will be much to its advantage. Testimonials in favor of the system of shorthand taught by him are numerous.

In the proceedings in the case of the Canada Hotel against Archibald Fabre for damages on account of having placed the paper under a ban, counsel for his Grace claimed that the circular was privileged, and that if the plaintiff suffered damages, it was to the circular, which the defendant denies, the latter is in no wise responsible therefor.

Inspector Moylan, of Ottawa, concluded his inspection of Dorchester penitentiary last Wednesday, and found everything very satisfactory. Mr. Moylan said he noticed improvements in the general behavior of the prisoners, their health was exceptionally good, not a single case in the hospital among the one hundred and eighty prisoners, and that the best of feeling between the warden and other officials.

In October last Miss Beault, 19 years old, daughter of a well-known musician in Montreal, was reprimanded for some trifling act of disobedience that had incurred her father's displeasure, and at once left the house, saying she would never see her again. Miss Beault never returned home, but the parents hoped that she had not carried out her dark threat, and daily looked for her return. Last week, however, the mystery was solved by finding the poor girl's body floating in the river.

James S. May & Son is one of the oldest and best known firms of merchant tailors in St. John. As will be seen by their advertisement, they have removed from the Dunville building, where they have been located for many years, to 68 Prince William street. They have a stock of superior quality and large variety. In make, fit and finish their goods give the most complete satisfaction. This firm has special facilities and a large experience in filling orders by mail. The patterns of all their customers are preserved, so that a fit by mail orders is sure as by measure to old patrons. Through the MESSENGER AND VISITOR Messrs. May cordially invite their friends and the public to visit and inspect their new store and stock, which is one of the best in the city.

Deaths.

HARRIS.—At Pembroke, of heart disease, May 21, Samuel Harris, aged 61 years.

BRATT.—At Stomington, Mass., on May 1st, William Starratt, aged 45; buried at his native place, Green Oak, Colchester Co., N. S.

FRANK.—In Toronto, June 5th, Frank, beloved and only son of Edmund and Minnie Burke, and grandson of J. L. Black, of Sackville, N. B.

SLOCUM.—At Port Lorne, N. S., May 22, after a few weeks' illness, Isaac Slocum, departed this life in the 53rd year of his age. He leaves a wife and two daughters who mourn their loss.

SMITH.—At Upper Falmouth, June 2, Sarah G., the beloved wife of Frederick Smith, aged 39 years. Though the illness was of long duration, yet she sweetly yielded to the will of her Lord.

BOWDEN.—Suddenly, at Lot 10, P. E. Island, June 4, Ann Bowden, in the 93rd year of her age. Her firm hope in Christ gave her great comfort and consolation during her sickness, and not a few assembled to follow the remains of our aged sister to her last resting place. She rests from her labors. May God comfort the mourners.

BROWN.—At the home of her daughter, Hampton, N. S., April 27, Mrs. Seth Brown passed peacefully away, aged 75. She professed faith in Christ many years ago, and adorned her profession by a well-ordered life and godly conversation; hence, as a subsequent result, her end was "peace." She leaves children, grandchildren and a host of friends who mourn their loss.

TURBER.—At Carleton, N. B., May 23, of consumption, after a year's illness, Capt. Jesse Thurber, formerly of Freeport, N. S. He was respected in shipping circles as a good living man, and he died trusting Christ for salvation.

FARRIS.—At Honiton, May 9, of pneumonia, Laughlan J. Farris, in the 21st year of his age, son of Isaac and Harriet Farris. The remains were brought home and laid to rest in the burying ground at Mill Cove. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their great grief.

WILLIAMS.—At Carleton, May 25, of paralysis, after a helpless illness of two years' duration, Catherine, the beloved wife of Jas. B. Williams, in the 69th year of her age. For 40 years she had been a consistent Christian, a member of the church at Wickham, N. B. Her husband and five children, now in the prime of life, are consoled by the thought that she is at rest.

ROBERTS.—At Oxford, N. E., March 23, Wm. H. Roberts, in the 51st year of his age. Mr. Roberts professed religion in 1874, under the preaching of Geo. W. Thomas, lic., and united with the Baptist church in Canoe. He was a kind husband and a constant worshipper of God in his home. He loved the Word of his Lord and rested upon the promise, and strongly desired to dwell with Christ. He leaves a wife and many friends to mourn.

MYERS.—At East Wallace, May 16, Edward W. Myers, in his 66th year. Our brother was converted in early manhood and united with the Baptist church at Wentworth. Eighteen months ago he was stricken down with paralysis, which caused him to be almost a constant sufferer. During his illness he exhibited strong faith in Christ, and spoke often of the wonderful love of God to him as a sinner. Our brother leaves a widow, two sons and five daughters to mourn their loss. But he has gone to be with Christ, which is far better.

CORRETT.—At Lakeville, Feb. 28th, William Corbett, aged 69 years. The deceased was admired by the Rev. Abram Stronach more than fifty years ago, at which time he united with the church at Billtown. Since then his Christian life has alternated with sunshine and shadow, ending in a most calm and glorious sunset scene. Calmly and serenely, with a full assurance of faith in Him in whom he had believed, he sank down into the embrace of death, knowing that but for a little he was parting from two sons and one daughter, a widow and eleven children, all but one of whom are members of the church, mourn the loss of a faithful and affectionate husband and father, yet not without hope of meeting him again "some sweet day by and by."

SIMPSON.—At Belmont, Oct 16, P. E. I., on May 18, Lillian, the much beloved daughter of Samuel Simpson, in the 25th year of her age. Her sister was baptized and united with the Belmont church on May 24, 1885. Her firm hope in Christ gave her great comfort and consolation during her illness. She repeatedly asked for the Word of God to be read, and in her last moments her mind was fixed upon the haven of rest. She only regretted that she had not lived nearer and worked more for her Master. She was beloved by all her young associates, and will be greatly missed, not only by those in the home circle, but by the church and temperance society of which she was an active member. God seems to allow consumption to lay its withering hand on many of His own people, thus to mark out the wickedness of the church and temperance society of which she was an active member. God seems to allow consumption to lay its withering hand on many of His own people, thus to mark out the wickedness of the church and temperance society of which she was an active member.

SWEET.—At the residence of her son, Harding P. Sweet, Billtown, April 18, Mrs. Samuel Sweet, aged 85 years and 9 months. Our deceased sister was beloved by the Rev. Abram Stronach, March 30, 1859, when she united with the church at Billtown, of which she has always been a worthy and consistent member. The pure, clear light of a consecrated Christian, indicating the presence of Christ within her, the hope of glory, has ever shone from her life and actions. As far as circumstances would permit, her place in the church was never vacant, and the path of duty was the way of her delight. Her heart and hands were always open to the poor and needy, and her kindly sympathy was ever with the sorrowing and afflicted. At a ripe age, after a useful and fruitful life, God has gathered her into His Kingdom in glory. Truly of her it may be said, to live was Christ, and to die was gain. She leaves behind her nine children, all but one of whom are members of the church, and all of whom are successful and respected members of society. May God's blessing rest upon the mourners and large concourse of friends, what the religion of Jesus can do for its possessors in hours of trial. He allows it that it may prove the strength of faith, that He may develop the Christian graces of His people, and by His gentle dealings lead the straying ones to the blood that purifies. May God comfort the mourners.

In view of the fact that the of a separate Convention for New Brunswick has already been very discussed in this journal, and in view of action taken at the Brussels meeting of May 31, the Executive Board of Directors have advised pending the action of the Assembly and the Convention in the matters of the MESSENGER AND VISITOR, not to be reopened to a discussion of the subject. In this the editor fully acquiesces. Any brethren who have recently articles on the subject may therefore be published in this journal.

The notice respecting the of the N. B. Southern Association published in this issue, was sent in violation last week. Afterward Madder's note was received in that it was the duty of Mr. W. H. assistant clerk, to notify the church meeting. Mr. Ingram was of town, and being unable to come him before going to press, we judged best to withhold the notice. Mr. Ingram subsequently informed us was appointed clerk of the assembly at its first quarterly meeting, was acting in that capacity the year, but said he would write Wiggins in reference to the matter he might send the notice if he best. As no other notice has been received and no further word in the matter, we publish the notice previously sent in.
