THREATENED TO KNOCK THE INSPECTOR'S BLOCK OFF

A. O. H. Wilson Had Trouble with Fisheries Official—Latter Becomes Abusive at Enquiry and is Suppressed by Court.

An investigation into the charges of irregularities which have been preferred against the local inspector of fisheries, J. Fred Belyea by local fishermen was commenced yesterday by J. F. Calder of Campbell, chief inspector of fisheries for St. John and Charlotte counties, and will be continued today. Mr. Belyea acted as his own counsel, and on two occasions was severely reprimanded by the court for using improper language. At the morning session Edward Woodworth, of the West Side, gave evidence that when he applied for a license to construct a sardine weir he was told that he could not have a license unless he gave the inspector and his brother a share in the weir. Mr. Belyea admitted to the court that he owned shares in four weirs: the Black Rock, Rapid, Number 2 and Diving Bell weirs.

Alexander Logan and Charles Maston testified that in 1906 Inspector Belyea advised them to set their salmon nets on Sunday, promising to send the government position to receive their catch, and to pay them $2.00 apiece for each salmon caught. They said they fished on Sunday, catching two salmon, and that Mr. Belyea took both salmon, though he only paid them for one, saying that he was building a house and was hard up. They added that later Mr. Belyea asked them to go out fishing again, but they refused, saying they were not going to work on shares with him. After this the inspector declined to follow the usual practice of sending the pontoon to receive their salmon, and they lost some money because the fish went bad.

Troubles With Inspector. A. O. H. Wilson was under examination during a portion of the morning and at the afternoon session. He told of his troubles with the inspector. He said he had complied with the inspector's instruction to make a six foot gap in his trap and leave it open on Sunday, so the fish could go through. He was not aware at the time that there had been an amendment to the license allowing the owner to close his weir during Sunday so the fish could not get in. He did not think he had done wrong in taking out the fish that had got in his weir on Sunday while there was a six foot gap for them to get out. One Sunday evening the inspector had rowed over to his wharf, accused him of illegal fishing and after some words challenged him to fight, in the presence of a policeman. The inspector contacted his fish and next morning returned and tried to start a row.

Mr. Belyea—"Do you remember that you said to me then that you would kill me?" Mr. Wilson—"No, I don't. You said I was no good and called me out of my name. I said to you then: 'I'll knock your block off if you don't stop abusing men on my property.'" Mr. Belyea—"And you picked up a stick."

Mr. Wilson—"Yes, I picked up a stick. You had no right to abuse me. When you came for the fish I told you to take them and fine me if you wanted to."

At this point Mr. Belyea applied an unseemly epithet to the witness and was sharply rebuked by the court and decided not to go on with the cross examination. A number of other fishermen will be examined today and Mr. Belyea will be given an opportunity to call witnesses in defence.

NOMINATIONS WILL ONLY BE FORMALITY

No Speeches by Candidates—Government are Supporters of Sweeping Victory. Nominations of candidates for the local legislature will be made today. Sheriff DePrest will open his court at 10 o'clock, and nominations will be received up to noon. The proceedings will be of a very formal nature, as the candidates have agreed not to make speeches. Each candidate is required to have his nomination papers signed by twenty qualified voters, and to put up a deposit of $100.

John E. Wilson, L. P. D. Tilley, Phillip Grannan, and C. Lockhart will be nominated as candidates supporting the Fleming government, and W. E. Foster, F. J. G. McGowan, W. Keirstead and W. J. Mahoney will be nominated as opposition candidates. It is the general opinion that the last four names will not get a better opportunity of serving the public than by allowing their deposits to remain in the public treasury.

In the county Warden Carson and Col. J. B. M. Baxter will be nominated as candidates of the local government party, and A. P. Benley and Amadore Anderson will be the representatives of the opposition. There is every indication that the election will prove a sweeping victory for the government forces in both the city and county. In contrast with the large meeting held in the North End in the interest of the government forces a short time ago, the opposition meeting held in the same place on Tuesday evening was a decided flop. There were about five times the number of electors at the government meeting.

At the committee rooms the number of workers for the government outnumbered the workers for the opposition by about the same proportion. In spite of the frantic efforts of the unhappy organs of Mr. Pugsley to put a brave face on the situation the opposition is badly demoralized. The insurgents who are in revolt against the Pugsley machine are taking no interest in the contest, and the opposition is left without efficient workers.

Justice Allingham III. A charge preferred against Joseph Neely was to have been heard before Justice Allingham in the Fairville court last evening, but owing to the illness of the Justice the case was postponed until a future date.

PREMIER FLEMING FRIDAY NIGHT AT THE OPERA HOUSE AND IN FAIRVILLE

Arrangements have been made so that Premier J. K. Fleming as well as speaking in the Opera House at the big mass meeting tomorrow (Friday) night, will also address the Lancaster electors in Fairville. A rapid automobile trip will be made from the adjacent town to the theatre ensuring against delay in the schedule of city speeches.

The government leader has much to say that the people want to hear, and his political opponents are rather afraid to hear. He will give one of his candid, forcible and open-ended above-board review of his party's tenure of office, and voters may expect a profitable evening.

The chair at the Opera House will be taken at 8 o'clock promptly when the candidates, Messrs. Wilson, Lockhart, Grannan and Tilley will be heard. Special reservation for ladies and their escorts.
