POLICE COURT

Orrel White, charged with assaulting Policeman Elliott was allowed his liberty yesterday morning on the grounds that the evidence was insufficient to convict him. His Honor said that he had carefully reviewed the evidence and as there were six witnesses who swore that White did not touch the officer and six who swore that he did, he thought the prisoner was entitled to the benefit of the doubt and therefore he would dismiss the case. The case will be appealed by the city.

James Collins, charged with assaulting James Angus, was fined $20 with the option of spending two months in jail.

George Ertell, charged with being drunk and resisting the police was remanded to jail.

Harry Thibault pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing liquor from the C. P. R. and was remanded until sentenced.

One drunk was fined $8 with the usual option.

James and William Moore, two boys who escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home, were committed for trial this morning.

David Hennessey, charged with stabbing Pte. David Shaw, a member of "B" Squadron of the 16th C.M.R., was also committed for trial. He pleaded "not guilty." An additional charge, viz., that he being a ticket of leave man had not reported to the Chief of Police since August.

Detective Killen gave evidence in the case of Wm. Laresson, charged with stealing a gramophone and six records from Eskil Hellin of the bark Belleville, and the prisoner was remanded. When asked the usual statutory questions he pleaded not guilty and said that the machine and records had been given him by a man named Paterson. He had believed that the man owned them and as to giving his wrong name he said that he had given his mother's name. He did not know the name of the street that his boarding house was on and he gave the name of Main street.

James Roper, charged with assaulting David Jones, was remanded. Jones was found in an alley opposite the Dufferin Hotel, Charlotte street, with his head badly cut and lying in a pool of blood. He was taken to the police station by Officer Armstrong and his wounds were dressed by Dr. R. F. Dunlop. Roper stated to the police that some one had gone through his pockets and robbed him and he thought that it was Jones.

John Campbell, charged with begging on Dorchester street, was allowed to go as he had an offer to ship on a steamer to South Africa. A suspended sentence of six months imprisonment, without a fine and three months imprisonment with a fine was struck against him.

In the Police Court yesterday afternoon William Forrester, who has enlisted with the 55th Battalion, was found guilty of disorderly conduct and with chasing a man with a knife. He was fined $48 or six months in jail, but the fine was allowed to stand against him on the promise to the court that he would take the pledge for life.

Manager Colwell of the Queen's Hotel was before the court on a complaint from the Board of Health. It was explained to the court that the snow swept from the ice in the rink had been thrown out of a rear window of the rink and persons living in the vicinity thought the sanitary conditions were not improved by it. Some of the snow had been placed under the rink. The case was allowed to stand on the promise of Mr. Colwell to have the snow removed from the premises.

Edith Storey, Ned Finley, S. Rankin Drew and other Viagraph stars, presented the three-part Broadway feature, "O'Gary of The Royal Mounted" to the eminent satisfaction of the most exacting motion picture lover. It was an unusually pretty drama and for scenic worth was one of the best shown at the Imperial for a long time, being laid in the Rocky Mountains. In addition there was another of the "Hazards of Helen" series, and a couple of George Ade's Slang Fables in pictures.

Max Fisman will again grace Imperial curtain on Wednesday in Geo. Barr McCutcheon's sweet little rural comedy-drama "What's His Name." This is the tale of a silly little wife, who left her drug-store husband to join a travelling theatrical troupe. She soon found out that home life was better.

ARTILLERY DETACHMENT FOR OVERSEAS

Given splendid send-off by citizens—Announcement of Mobilization of 55th here stimulates recruiting.

Off for Halifax where they will be in training for garrison duty overseas a detachment of fifteen men from the 3rd Canadian Regiment of Artillery left the city last evening on the late train. The party which was under the command of Lieut. Colin MacKay came up from Partridge Island at 10.30 and marched to the Union Station, where a large crowd of citizens were on hand to bid them farewell. The roll of the detachment from the 3rd Regiment, C. G. A., is as follows: Officer commanding Lieut. Colin MacKay; Curtis Roberts, Arthur Lee, George Binlin, Joseph Letson, Thomas Andrews, John Dawson, William Thompson, Harley Kinnigan, A. B. Sowers, Ernest Thompson, W. J. Blackwell, Thomas L. Lacey, John McDowd, William M. Thomas, Dennis Boyd.

The 55th Battalion Interest in the recruiting for the 55th Battalion increased yesterday as a result of the announcement that Hon. J. D. Hazen had arranged to have the battalion mobilized at St. John and the number of men who enlisted yesterday was larger than usual. No special efforts have been made as yet to enlist men for this battalion, and whether a publicity campaign such as was instituted when the 26th Battalion was being recruited is not yet known. The number of volunteers coming forward in St. John day by day has not been large, but recruiting is coming along in other parts of the province is not known here. Col. Kirkpatrick of Woodstock will command the battalion and it is understood a complete list of officers recommended for service with the battalion has been forwarded to headquarters for consideration.

A number of saddlers and wheelers attached to the Army Service Corps on the West Side left for Halifax last night where they will go through a training course and will be expected to pass an examination. Yesterday members of the corps went for a route march with horses and equipment and did detail work in connection with the establishment of a depot.

FIFTY MINERS DIE IN SNOWSLIDE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Bunk Houses swept away by Avalanche — Scores of Miners injured — Doctors and nurses on way to the scene.

Vancouver, B. C., March 22.—Fifty miners were killed, and as many more injured, early today by a snowslide which swept away several bunk houses at the Britannia mine at Howe Sound, B. C., according to a despatch received here. Besides the bunk houses part of the aerial tramway of the mine was carried away.

The mine level is on the side of a mountain and nearly five thousand feet above the shore of the Sound. The tramway destroyed extended from the mine to the beach.

Soon after reports of the avalanche were received here a steamer with physicians and nurses left for Howe Sound. Details are lacking owing, it is believed to the fact that communication with the mine has been cut off as telephone wires are down.

The Britannia is a coal mine employing more than one thousand men.

Last Chance Prussia Will Have to Plunge Europe Into a War

London, Mar. 22.—"War might have been avoided by a European conference, when and where Germany desired," Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Grey told an audience in London this afternoon. At the time he was acting as chairman of a gathering which was listening to a lecture on the strategy of the war, continuing along this line the Foreign Secretary said:

"Germany, from her experience, in the Balkan conference, knew she could count on our good will, and that we were ready to do last July what we did before. But Germany refused every suggestion, and on her rests for all time the appalling responsibility for the war, we now know that Germany had prepared for war, and only those who have planned for war can prepare for it."

Amid loud cheers Sir Edward Grey added: "This is the fourth time within living memory that Prussia has made war upon Europe and we are determined it shall be the last."

Germany Must Bear The Blame

"The expenditure of hundreds of millions of money, and the loss of millions of lives might have been avoided by a conference of the European powers held in London or at The Hague, or wherever and in whatever form Germany would have consented to hold it. It would have been far easier to have settled the dispute between Austria-Hungary and Serbia, which Germany made the occasion for the war, than it was to get successfully through the Balkan crisis of two years ago."

"In recent years," the Foreign Secretary went on to say, "we have given Germany every assurance that any aggressive movement upon her would receive no support from us. We withheld from her only one thing—the unconditional promise to stand aside however aggressive Germany herself might be to her neighbor."

"Last July, before the outbreak of war, France, Italy and Russia were ready to accept a conference. Germany refused every suggestion made for settling the dispute in this way, and on her must rest now and for all time the appalling responsibility of having plunged Europe into this war."

Asking, "what is the issue for which we are fighting," Sir Edward proceeded as follows:

"In due time terms of peace will be put forward by the Allies. One essential condition must be the restoration to Belgium of her independent national life and free possession of her territory. The great issue is this: We wish the nations of Europe to be free to live their independent lives, working out their own form of government, whether they be great states or small states. That is our ideal."

"The German ideal is that the Germans are a superior people to whom all things are lawful and against whom resistance is unlawful and must be put down, that they must establish domination over the nations of the continent and that all must be subservient to Germany."

"I would rather perish or leave the continent altogether than live in it under such conditions. After this war we and the other nations of Europe must be free to live without the interference of the superior war lord; without the clang of armor and the sword continually rattled in the scabbard; heaven continually invoked and without our policy being dictated by the military domination of Prussia."

"We claim for ourselves and together with our allies we will secure that right to live and pursue our national existence, not in the shadow of Prussian supremacy, but in the light of equal liberty."

GREAT ARTISTS PORTRAYED AT THE IMPERIAL

Harry Fondell scored an unusual hit in Imperial Theatre yesterday with his imitations of Kubelik, the eminent violinist; Lefevre, the saxophone artist; Van Biene, the Dutch cellist; and Bokemier Kryl, famous cornetist. This is one of the Keith offerings and is very splendidly staged, with the added novelty of Mr. Fondell adjusting his wigs, clothes, etc. in front of the audience. Musically, the act is very pretty and with popular and standard music, the fifteen minutes, during which the characterizations held the stage, passed very quickly indeed.

Edith Storey, Ned Finley, S. Rankin Drew and other Viagraph stars, presented the three-part Broadway feature, "O'Gary of The Royal Mounted" to the eminent satisfaction of the most exacting motion picture lover. It was an unusually pretty drama and for scenic worth was one of the best shown at the Imperial for a long time, being laid in the Rocky Mountains. REPORT ON VANCOUVER'S ASSESSMENT

Improvements exempt from taxation — Land assessed at actual cash value — Tax rate 22 mills

H. J. Painter, assessment commissioner at Vancouver, B.C., has sent the Board of Trade the following letter with respect to assessment conditions at that city:

"We have two systems of taxation in this province, viz., municipal and provincial."

"All lands and improvements are assessed by the city at their actual cash value as they would be appraised in payment of a just debt from a solvent debtor; the value of improvements being estimated separately from the value of the land."

"The Council of each year has the power, by by-law, to exempt the whole or any part of the improvements from taxation. From 1895 to 1905 improvements were exempt up to 50 per cent. of their assessed value; and from 1906 to 1909, 75 per cent. of their assessed value was exempt; while from 1910 to 1914 improvements have been entirely exempt from taxation."

"The Council of this year has not yet decided how improvements will be dealt with in the provincial assessment and collect the taxes on personal property and income, and out of taxes received from above sources they make various grants to the city for hospitals, schools, etc."

"I am sending you under separate cover a copy of our last annual financial report (the 1914 one is not yet out) from which I think you will get information to cover the rest of the questions asked."

The valuation of real property at the close of 1914, subject to court of revision, was $145,603,352; improvements, $79,137,378. The rate of taxation at the beginning of 1914 was 22 mills on the dollar.

The population of Vancouver at the end of 1914 was 106,110.

HEADACHY, COSTIVE, BILIOUS,—CASCARETS®

Tonight! Clean your bowels and end headaches, colds, sour stomach.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid bowels: delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

COCOANUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
