THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGUAPH, ST. JOHN N. B., MUNE OF 190012

Late War News.

London, June 4-4 a. m.-There is no direct news from Pretoria of later date than Thursday evening. General French's cavalry were then at Irene, eight miles south of Pretoria, and firing was heard there. Lord Roberts' messages about secondary operations elsewhere and the situation at Johannesburg, dated at Orange Grove, a farm four miles northeast of Johannesburg, show that on Saturday, at 9.10 p. m., he was 25 miles from Pretoria.

Correspondents Dumb.

The correspondents with Lord Roberts have not got through a line about the operations after the occupation of Johannes-burg. Official messages continue to come through, but press telegrams are held up, probably to avoid their giving even a hint as to what may be the pending operations. From the other side there filters through Lorenzo Marquez a mass of statements, some contradictory, others obviously improbable, but the following purporting to "Pasengesrs arriving at Lorenzo Marquez Saturday direct from Pretoria, say that the capital was preparing to surrender when they left Thursday. The forts were dismantled. The Boer guard at Komati Poort searched all trains and turned back most of the fugitives, among them desert-ing foreigners, who were striving to reach neutral soil.

"Immense Boer convoys of provisions are between Pretoria and Middleburg. Fifteen trains are sent daily to Machadsdoran with supplies for Lydenburg. Pretoria is pictured by the refugees as in a state of independent of the provision and chaos state of indescribable confusion and chaos. The populace are dismayed and the British are expected hourly."

Some foreign attaches have arrived at Lorenzo Marquez to communicate with their governments for orders to leave, as they consider that organized war, on the Transvaal side, is at an end. Flying among the Boers are reports that the British have been beaten back at Lindley with heavy loss; that the main attack on Elandsto retire to Klip's Riverberg; that the railway has been cut behind him south of Vereeniging and that a provision train had
