

ther, a scholar of Trinity College, had been offered a fellowship, but wishing to see Canada, he declined the offer, and was for a time a master in Upper Canada College. He then removed to the country, where he lived until 1840, when he became Secretary-Treasurer of the Law Society. This position he retained until a short time before his death, December, 1872.

John Wellington, who had been a student of Trinity College, Dublin, for four years, on his arrival in Canada, commenced the study of law in the office of Thomas Kirkpatrick, Kingston, who was an old friend of the family. He was called to the bar in 1837. He married Julia, youngest daughter of Dr. Durie. He was appointed Judge, Common Pleas, 1868, and in 1879, Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, a position he yet adorns (1891).

James became a barrister, and was in practice at Berlin and Galt until his death.

A sister, Elenor, came to Canada in 1876. She became the wife of Rev. Thos. Green. Mrs. Green, now a widow, is still living in Toronto (1890).

Wm. Charles was born, April, 1806. He received his general and medical education at Trinity College, being a private pupil of Surgeon Adams, of Stephens' Green. Eight years were devoted to medical study, and he took the degree of M.B. at Trinity College. The following certificates signed by two distinguished surgeons of that day, tell of the high estimation in which he was held :

"DUBLIN, July 23rd, 1831.

"I have been intimately acquainted with Mr. William Charles Gwynne for several years past and know him to be very highly qualified in all the departments of medical science. He is well calculated in every respect to faithfully discharge the duties of any medical or surgical situation to which he may be appointed, both from his high professional qualifications and his most excellent moral character.
