Statement by Mr. Jury.

Editor World: I wish to make a few remarks about the free bus line and the strikers. We agreed to hold out two weeks without any pay. Then after that we were supposed to draw full pay. We received $6 for one week's pay, and we were told that we would get more the next week, which we have not received yet. On Friday there was a notice put up that we would get our pay on Saturday at 2 p.m. About 5 p.m. another notice was put up that we would get it on Monday. We have not received it yet. I would like to know if 2305 is going to order us would not strike and wont support us? Are we going to sell our household goods to keep us from starving? We have to pay our rent or be sheriffed out for it. It is the truth I tell you. I wish you to publish this. You will hear from me again if not paid.

A STRIKER AND A K. Of L. STREET CAR MAN.
On receipt of the above letter The World last night sent a reporter to ascertain if its contents were correct. Mr. A. F. Sir Walter Scott.

On receipt of the above letter The World last night sent a reporter to accertain it its contents were correct. Mr. A. F. Jury, provisional president of the Bus line, was found in the company's office in the Arcade building, the centre of a group of prominent labour men, who appeared to be discussing the situation. The statement that any of the strikers had to go without pay for three weeks, he laughingly characterized as untrue. "Why" has aid, "they agreed to go for three weeks, he sease to have it attended to. Since then the unen who remained on strike have received ay for three weeks, the first instalment being "e dollars, the second six and last weeks our for married men. Of course single men et less. Business last week was slow, and although money is flowing in from the unions, we are run pretty close, especially as we have to pay such exorbitant prices for teams. Some of them cost us four dollars a day, and it takes fourteen dollars per day to run some of the large vans. It is our intention, when shrings get going smoothly, to pay our men fright up to dake at good wages. The men did not, it is true, receive their last week's pay on Saturday, but they got it early this week."

Mr. Jury again characterized the letter as a fabrication and returned to his caucus.
