It's too bad a team has to lose game after getting chance to play in Gardens

TORONTO — Someone remarked after the Mississauga Minor Midget Day at Maple Leaf Gardens Saturday, "It's too bad someone has to lose when you play at the Gardens. They should have all been ties because it's a real treat for these youngsters."

It definitely was a treat. It's not often minor teams get to use the Carlton St. Mint for games. There's a certain amount of aura surrounding such an occasion because of the prestige the Gardens carries.

However, five teams did end up losers while only one game resulted in a tie. That game between Erindale Intermouth Const., last in the major series, and Clarkson A-2, first in the A division, finished in a 1-1 deadlock.

It was one of the most exciting contests and the good crowd enjoyed the tight battle. Mark Langdon connected on passes from Rick Millard and Craig Hunt for Clarkson's goal. Bob Isles scored for Erindale when he fired in Dave Connolly's pass.

In other games, Dave Knox fired two goals and added two assists as Dixie-Burn Inter City Trucking downed Cookville Edrich Group 4-2. Marc Newman and Tim Melian were the other marksmen. Dave Round had three assists and others went to Bob Lingley and Gerry Mattie. John McMullen rapped in an unassisted mark for Cookville and Brian Franklin scored from Les Poldoski for the other goal.

Malton A's whipped Erindale Scandia Pools 5-1. Ken Mellen scored twice and Mike Gristrook notched another. Malcolm Garwood and John Callaghan had two assists apiece. Danny Beck had another. Mike Anderson scored on a solo effort for the losers.

Port Credit Martin TV thumped Lorne Park Johnstone Shipping 6-0. Ed McMahon scored twice and earned an assist. Bruce Kelk also had a pair. Glen Gilbert added a goal and an assist as did John Donner. Reed Beard also had an assist. Brad McPater had an easy time registering the shutout.

Malton Majors came out on top of Applewood 6-4 in an exciting contest. Rick Holmes fired two goals for the winners with singles to Steve Barabash, Phil Menary, Lorne Faubert Jr. and Sam Forbes. Faubert, Barabash (2), Wayne Young and James Heels collected assists. Andy Bonniwell had three assists for the losers with Steve Dunlop scoring twice. David Hayes and Bruce Gow were other marksmen. Gow also had two assists and Scott Crawford had another.

In the final game, Cloverleaf Border Brokers nipped Clarkson Southdown Shell 3-1. Murray Lantz fired two goals and added an assist on Jeff Strong's goal. Doug Stevenson and Stuart Mills also had assists. Danny Clarke scored from Jamie Tipping and John Turpie for Clarkson.

Bantams

Scott Curtis, Joe Rak have 3-goal efforts

MISSISSAUGA — Scott Curtis and Joe Rak scored hat-tricks in the same game. But, the players were on opposite teams and Curtis' effort provided a 5-4 win for Erindale Argyle Furniture over Cookville Mobile Lift in bantam B action.

Curtis was helped out by Jim Pratt and Rick Oughtred in the win. Bob Spence had two assists. John Lane scored the other goal for the losers.

Applewood blanked Dixie 4-0. John Staples, Mike Hall, Paul Pilkinson and Mike Cahill scored goals for the winners and Peter Smith was in goal for the shutout.

Danny Parker fired two goals to lead Cawthra to a 4-1 win over Malton in other action. M. Melo and D. Palumbo were the other goal-scorers in the win. Mike Chiaravolotti scored from W. MacLeod and Al Brunton for Malton.

BANTAM MAJOR

the others. Mike Taylor and Jeff Wilson had assists. Kurt Schmidt managed an unassisted goal for Cookville.

PAPERWEIGHT B

Murray Arnold's unassisted goal helped Alan Robins record a shutout as Erindale Cookville Truck and Trailer nipped Cookville Spotton 1-0.

Steve Sanderson in goal for Applewood Pre Met Diamond Rings and Jeff Thompson in goal for Cawthra were brilliant in their scoreless tie.

Stu Kelly connected on a pass from Dan Weg as Dixie Erichen and Brown Sunoco nipped Dixie Williams Insurance 1-0. Keith Carruthers picked up the hardearned shutout over Craig Williams in goal for Dixie.

Two goals by Gary Smith and one by Steve Tanaka helped Cookville G. H. Wood beat Erindale Picken Chicken 3-1. Mark Newton and Smith also had assists. Rick Campbell scored unassisted for Erindale.

Unassisted markers by Jim McMullen and Randy Stewart were plenty as Erindale K-Mart blanked Dixie-Burn Peel Civitan 2-0. Marshall Alexander was a standout for the winners in goal.

PAPERWEIGHT A

Ian Clark grabbed Jim Reid's pass and turned it into the only goal of the game as Applewood Metropolitan Trust nipped Cawthra 1-0. Randy Mitchell's work in goal earned him the shutout over Jeff Saltz in the other end.

Lorne Park McMillan Fuels came up with another shutout off Erindale Bell's Red and White as they beat Erindale Indians 1-0. Lorne McCoy scored from Grant Dowd to account for the only goal on Mike Demolder in the nets for Indians.

Malton battled Cawthra to a 4-4 tie. Peter Nesbitt, Chris Menary, Steve Kazimer and John Cassidy scored for Malton while Scott Barrow blasted in all four goals for Cawthra. It was a remarkable performance for the youngsters.
