At Homeland Senior Public School, 2420 Homelands Drive, the Science Fair, involving 220 youngsters, who submitted 160 projects, is all over now and the 45 winners are preparing to exhibit their entries in the Peel County Science Fair to be held at the Clarkson Arena.

In the art department, under the guidance of teacher, R. VandeSompel, the grade 7 and 8 pupils are busily preparing for the art show to be held at the school, days and evenings of May 16 and 17. They plan to have at least one entry from each student and it is hoped that all the parents will take the opportunity to view these works. Admission is free.

HOMEOWNERS

The West Erindale Homeowner's Association held a forum on Regional Government recently at Erindale Secondary School. There were about 60 people in the audience and speakers, Mayor Chic Murray, Doug Kennedy, Lou Parsons and Jack Kehoe were kept busy with their speeches and answering questions from the floor.

SORORITY

Xi Beta Chi of Beta Sigma Phi had as guest speaker, Mo Coady, from the Canada Manpower Office, at their latest meeting to inform the members of the facilities available to anyone interested in pursuing a career, either in the field in which they are already trained or how to receive further training to widen their skills.

Members, along with the other chapters in the area, attended the Founders Day Ball at the Cambridge Motor Hotel recently. The members attended a banquet and were joined by their escorts at 9 p.m. for a dance. Eleanor Oram, Speyside Drive, was named Xi Beta Chi's Girl of the Year for her contribution to the chapter as coordinating representative and as convener of the recent fashion show which raised $2,000 for the Peel County Girls Home.

Delta Kappa recently held rituals for some of their members: pledge ritual, Anne Serotiuik; ritual of affirmation, Terry Higgins, Genny Kiernan, Lois Galbraith, Enid Thompson.

At the Founder's Day Ball, Anne Serotiuik, Bev Rygg and Marilyn Degeer had the ritual of jewels conferred upon them. Marilyn Vandendor was named their Girl of the Year and a special gift was given to Carol Hunt, Pinkwell Drive, who is leaving the chapter after eight years to move to an Exemplar Chapter.

GUIDES

There will be an open house at Camp Wyoka May 26 for the Guides and Brownies of the district. There will be demonstrations of Guide camping and Rangers and Brownies will show their various skills. Friends and relatives are most welcome.

DRAMA

The Erindale Community Players (Adult Theatre Group) of Erindale United Church meets Monday evenings from 7 to 9:30 p.m. The group has been growing steadily for the past few weeks and new members (especially men) are welcomed. If you have an interest in drama, contact Kris Klusmeier at the church, or just come out and join them on a Monday evening.

Eleanor Ward, left, and Agnes Springer arrange while Adrienne Rode, 10 months, admires bouquets of dried flowers for sale this Saturday, May 12, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. when the Mississauga Hospital Auxiliary, Rogerwood area, holds its annual garage sale at the Fina Service Station, Lorne Park Road. Besides the flowers there will be an assortment of clothing, furniture, household items, books, toys and baked goods to buy.

Silvercreek Public School, grades 5 and 6, played host to pupils from Briarwood Public School, Metropolitan Andri Separate School and residents of Extencicare last Wednesday, and treated them to a delightful play, The Princess and the Woodcutter. The entire cast did an excellent job, but for scene-stealing, top honours go to Charlene Seniuk, the queen, and king, Derek Phyllis. The two of them obviously enjoyed their parts and while on stage they really were king and queen.

The cast included Jim Wilson, woodcutter, Judy Harvey, princess, Richard Pitcher, red prince, Robert Jeffrey, blue prince, and Craig Summers, yellow prince. Shirley Swannack directed the students and credits go to Helen Bimblich, Diane Martin and Sid Sivret for scenery, Mary McFadyen for costumes, and other members of the staff for make-up.

At the conclusion of the performance, principal, Howard Shantz, took the Extencicare residents on a tour of the open-concept school.

CREATION

Cawthra Park Secondary School Choir and Band have a treat in store Saturday, May 12 at 8 p.m., when they present Joseph Haydn's oratorio, The Creation, in the school auditorium, 1305 Cawthra Road, by the Richmond Hill Ecumenical Choir and Symphony Orchestra with soloists of the Canadian Opera Company. Tickets for this outstanding evening are $2 (students $1.25), and may be purchased at the school office (274-1271), or by mailing a cheque or money order to Creation, 1305 Cawthra Road, Mississauga. Please include a stamped, self-addressed, envelope.

CANCER SOCIETY

Mrs. L. Wiseman, president of the Applewood branch of the South Peel unit of the Canadian Cancer Society, accompanied by Mrs. E. Law, attended the opening ceremonies of the curling marathon held recently at the Dixie Curling Club. She also attended the closing ceremonies at which time she expressed sincere appreciation of the society to both the Dixie Curling Club and the Oakville Curling Club for the funds raised through pledges toward the annual cancer drive.

At their April 30 meeting, Bloor-Dixie Seniors made final plans for the Bake Sale and Fish pond they are holding in Bethesda United Church Saturday, May 14 at 8 p.m. During the evening, Margaret McPeak presented Lillian Edgar with a past-president's pin, and then the members were treated to some fine entertainment by Mrs. Edward's Park Royal Morris Dancers.

The Bloor-Dixie seniors are already planning two June trips, one to Centre Island and one to Midland with supper at Orillia.

CHELSEY PARK

The residents of Chelsey Park Nursing Home were entertained recently by the United Church Women of Bethesda United Church of Forest Glen. Allan Nott, assisted by Mrs. Stein at the piano, led a sing-song, and Bill Hugo played a few semi-classical selections on the accordion. How Handel wrote the Messiah was related by Jean Robinson. An interesting and thought-provoking part of the story was Handel's prediction that he would die on Good Friday. The prediction ultimately, came true.

Paul Lover, of the South Peel Camera Club, recently held his fellow members in a discussion on the qualities needed to be a good judge of photographs. These qualities include imagination, objectivity and sensitivity to another's meaning.

In judging a picture, members came up with three main points. Exposures include color, contrast, mood, time of day and weather. Elements of a picture include such matters as composition, selective focus, centre of interest and format. The effect is the message sent by the photographer or communication between the photographer and the viewer.

The annual club dinner will be held at the Holiday Inn, Oakville, Saturday, May 12, with a social hour beginning at 7 p.m. and dinner at 7:30.

ROTARY

A short talk and a film on the Resource Rangers program were recently presented to Rotary Club of Mississauga members by Mississauga members by guest Steve Williams, a member and promoter of the

ONTARIO FORESTRY ASSOCIATION

The program is sponsored by the association as well as several service clubs and organizations. Boys involved range from 10 to 18 years of age and their training includes classroom lectures, field trips and attendance at a summer camp in the Muskoka district.

They learn about the renewable natural resources of forests, soil, water and wildlife. Presently there are eight clubs in the Toronto area including one in Mississauga. Several others are located in northern Ontario. Plans are in progress to begin a girls' club in Mississauga this year.

It was announced that Mark Grice, son of Glen and Barbara, won second prize for his art work at the district conference. Mark's theme was Rotary Reaches Out and he receives $15 in prize money.

Visiting Rotarians included Lee Wilson, Jim Dewhurst and Don Sanderson, of Etobicoke, Cam McCauley and Don Grey of Islington, John Beveridge of Streetsville, and Ron Livingston, of Montrose, Scotland.

CHOCOLATE

Tanya Low, a student at Our Lady of the Airways School, won a draw for a giant chocolate bunny, during Easter celebrations held at a shopping plaza in Bramalea. This thoughtful little girl brought the bunny to school and shared it with her Grade 3 and 4 classmates.

BICYCLES

Westwood Secondary School's fourth Kaleidoscope of Music was held recently in the school's auditorium. Conductors Karl Waldhauser and Ray Nowak led each group to musical perfection. Roy Nowak also acted as the master of ceremonies and introduced first the Junior Band playing eight selections.

WOODWIND TRIO

The Woodwind Trio, consisting of Randy MacDonald, first flute, Susan Downey, second flute, and Christine Hastie, clarinet, followed with two unnamed pieces by Randy MacDonald. Soloist, Mark Ashby, a Grade 9 student performed next on his concert guitar, playing Leyenda by Albanez. Prior to the Senior Choir's five songs, a folk group of three guitars and one flute entertained. Joyful singing by the Ray Nowak Choir and the school choir followed holding the audience's full attention.

The evening was brought to a close with nine selection played by the Westwood Secondary School Concert Band.
