Ottawa, Ontario,
January 23, 1935.

Dear Mr. Philp:

Now that I have delivered the speech here, I certainly do not want to be delivering it again as it is too much like a recitation, so please arrange otherwise.

The only circumstances under which I would deliver it again would be in case the Radio Commission desire to arrange a Canadian-wide hookup from Montreal. This they are considering.

Yours very truly,

Mr. J. M. Philp,
