Sir

I enclose herewith copy of a letter from Mr. Whalen, in which you will observe he states that Mr. Marks is rejecting certain descriptions of timber cut by Mr. Whalen under contract with Mr. Marks for that work, which the latter thinks are sufficiently good to be accepted by Mr. Marks as timber runs in that part of the Country.

You should inform Mr. Marks that he should be careful to have the trees selected by

J. P. Donnelly, Esq.

Indian Agent.
