Sir,

Referring to my letter of the 12th Instant, and previous correspondence on the subject of Nancy Mistakomon's location (St. John's, Can. Co. Acadia) I enclose copy of a letter addressed by her to the Department on the 11th Instant; and I have to expect that you will report on the statement made therein, especially respecting the plunder by the late Lessee of the timber on the location, and the allegation that you laughed at the complainant and told her to go to Ottawa, and see about it.

I am Sir,
 Your obedient Servant,
~~John Thompson~~
 Deputy of the Supt Genl
