Ottawa 26th November 1901

Sir-

I beg to inform you that a communication has been received from the Indian Agent of the Mohawk Reserve, calling attention to the fact that there were twelve days of disturbance under Lease of the Artillery Range on the Tyendinaga Reserve, which, as provided for by the Lease, amounts to $30.00 per day or $360.00 for the twelve days.

Will you kindly have a Cheque transmitted for the rental for the past Season, amounting to $200. in addition to amount for disturbance above referred to.

Your obedient servant
