names in articles on Canadian place-names in a pamphlet printed at Ottawa in 1898, in the Canadian Magazine XII, 289, in "Canadian History Readings, 87. Mr. A. S. Gatschet has also published a second article on Passamaquoddy Place-names in the Eastport Sentinel for Sept. 15, 1897. New Brunswick names occur in the Reports of the Geographic Board of Canada, and these, together with a newspaper discussion centering around them, have already been considered on an earlier page. The local names in and around St. John were discussed fully in the St. John Globe of June 20, and July 4, 1893 (with criticisms in intermediate and following numbers), and the street names of that city were all discussed in the St. John Sun, Feb. 22, 1905. Mr. James Vroom has published, as a separate leaflet, under date Sept. 22, 1904, a list of the names of school districts in Charlotte County with comments. These publications appear to bring the subject down to this date (March 1906).
