

Winning Hackneys of the Ennisclaire Farms, Oakville, and of the Derby Stock Farm, Simcoe, Ont.

Nos. 1 and 2—Lord Myrick, chestnut gelding, 15.3%. Notice his practically faultless action. Nos. 3 and 4—Lady Warwick, chestnut mare, 15.2%. No. 5—Lady Grosvenor, chestnut mare, 15.1%. These three animals shown by the Ennisclaire Stock Farm, Oakville, Ont., and owned by H. C. Cox, Esq., of Toronto, with one or two other animals from the farm not here shown, won more prizes in the harness classes for single, double, tandem and four-in-hands, than any others shown at the Toronto Horse Show. Mr. Cox is driving. Nos. 7 and 8—King Chocolate, bay stallion, 15%. Note his exceptionally fine action. The champion Hackney stallion on the line at the Toronto Horse Show and champion harness stallion at both the Toronto and Ottawa Shows. No. 9—Day Dream, bay gelding, 15%. Winner of first prize in the 15.2 harness class at the Toronto Show. All three animals were shown by the Derby Stock Farm, Simcoe, Ont., are owned by Mr. A. E. Yeager, who is driving.—All photographs taken specially for Farm and Dairy.
