ARCHDIOCESE OF KINGSTON.

His Grace Archbishop Gauthier has made the following pastoral changes in the Archdiocese: Rev. Father Sheedy from St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston, to Eulevile as curate to Right Rev. Monsignor, to Farelly; Rev. Father Crowley from St. Michel's Church. Belleville, to the Mission of Trevelyan as successor to Rev. Father Doyle, who has been in poor health for some time and who is at present residing in St. Vincent de Paul's Hospital, Brock ville.

The Trevelville Recorder of the 3rd inst says: Yesterday His Grace Archbishop Gauthier visited the parish of Trevelyan and made the pleasing announcement to the congregation that the property of the parish of Trevelyan and made the pleasing announcement to the congregation of the Hospital Grace, and was formally inducted as parish priest. The new pastor is a native of Ireland. He studied at the famous Missionary college of All Hallows, Dublin, and was ordained within its classic halls. He has been in Canada about a year, serving as curate to Monsignor Farrelly, at Belleville.

The Forty Hours' devotion this year commenced on Friday. 7th inst., being the vigil of the feast of the Icanaculate Conception and closed on Sunday evening with Pontifical Benediction. A large number of priests were present, and it was most edifying to see the large numbers going to the sacraments and devote exposition of the Biessed Sacrament. His Grace the Archbishop and the cleray of the exposition of the Biessed Sacrament. His Grace the Archbishop and the cleray of the cathedral must have been gratified and even by touched to see the devotion and solve the cathedral must have been gratified and they be the sacraments and devotions. Convocation hall of Ottawa University, auditorium and galleries, was crowded to the doors on Friday night of last week to hear the eminent Paulist, Rev. Father Youman, lecture on India. After a brilliant description of the manners and customs of its inhabitants, speaking from personal observation after a long recidence there, he drew an eloquent picture of its physicial features and scente beauties. Lime light views depicting types of its peoples, their gods and goddesses, temples, rivers and mountains followed. Father Youman was warmly applauded throughout. His Grace the Archbishop and a numerous body of the clergy were present.

JOSEPH M. WEST. BELLEVILLE.

On Sunday, Dec. 2nd, after a brief illness, Mr. Joseph M. West departed this life at his residence, lielleville.

The somewhat sunden demise of this popular years min took his many friends in and around Belleville, by surprise, as few were awarched that his sickness was of a nature that coused any fear of immediate death. Mr. West was a supplied to the sunder that the sickness was of a nature that coused any fear of immediate death. Mr. West was done to the friday before his death he came home suffering from pulmonary trouble, and notwithstanding the kind and loving attention of his mother and sisters, as well as the efforts of the best medical skill that could be procured, he passed peacefully away as above. Deceased was the only surviving son of the late Thomas West, was a carpenter by trade, unmerried, and about thirty-nine years old. Mr. West was well known in and around Belleville as a model, exemplary young man. A practical Catholic deeply attached to his mother and sisters, who were the constant objects of his most tender solidude, no efforts were apared to make his home both comfortable and attractive: truly it may be said that to him. "There was no place like home."

The funeral took place on Tuesday, 4th inst., from St. Michael's church, where a Solemi High Mass was celebrated.

A very large number of his friends and acquaintances including the members of the C. M. B. A., of which society he was a long standtothem we beg to extend our hearfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. Requirement in the process.

JOSEPH M. TIERNAN, TILBURY.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Joseph M. Tiernan. of Tibbury, youngest brother of Rev. M. J. Tiernan, P. P. of Mount Carmel, Ontario, which occurred at the family residence in Tibbury on Thursday, the 18th instant, the result of a severe attack of typhoid fever. Mr. Tiernan, who was well known in and around Tilbury, was highly respected for his many estimable qualities of head and heart. He is the youngest of a family of eleven children—eight boys and three grils. Of this loving household three brothers and two sisters are still living—Rev. Father Tiernan, P. P. of Mount Carmel; Peter, of Sandwich; Thomas, of Detroit, and Mrs. McSweeney, of Mount Clements, Mich. Together with these members of the family, the bereaved widow and four children survive to mourn the loss of a loving husband and an indulgent tather. Tiernan, although in ill-health.

bereaved widow and four children survive to mourn the loss of a loving husband and an indulgent tather.

Rev. Father Tlernan, although in ill-health, arrived at the death-bed of his brother in time to assist him in his final preparation for eternity, and ere the beautiful and solemn prayers for the dying were ended the soul of this cherished brother and faithful husband and father passed from time to eternity.

Rev. P. Langlois, P. P. Tiibury, attended Mr. Tiernan throughout his illness and celebrated the Requiem Mass on Saturday for the repose of his soul.

The funeral cortege was one of the largest seen in Tibury for some time, and the parish church was crowded with a devout congregation desirous of manifesting in a practical manner their loving regard for their departed neighbor and friend and to offer up earnest prayers that rest eternal might be given the soul of Joseph Tlernan.
