Toronto Boot and Shoe Trade.

FREE TRADE IN LABOUR VERSUS TYRANNY AND DICTATION FROM A TRADES UNION, KNOWN AS A CRISPIN SECRET ASSOCIATION.

WHEREAS, for the past two years, we have submitted to Crispin dictation and rule, and thereby, and in consequence thereof, have been compelled to limit our lines of manufacture, and being restricted from using all the facilities at our command to build up the manufacture of Boots and Shoes in this city.

And whereas, in consequence of the aforsaid rule and dictation, many of our employees were coerced into joining the said Crispin organization, and thereby deprived of exercising their individual rights and the liberty of disposing of their labor, as to each seemed fit and proper, and whereas a large number of our employees have signified their determination to withdraw from the said Crispin organization. We do hereby declare that from and after this date our shops shall be free and independent of any outside or Crispin influence or control.

And from this time forward we shall employ such men only as shall declare themselves free from said Crispin organization; and we hereby declare our intention to assert our legitimate rights to employ whoever we please and our intention to allow no person or persons to interfere in regulating our Bills and Wages except our own employees and ourselves.

And lastly that we are prepared to pay full and satisfactory wages, and guarantee plenty of work to all persons who may accept of the above terms and conditions, and will guarantee full personal protection to all who work for us.
