LETTER TO T. R. WREN, ACKNOWLEDGING TOBACCO NORTH RHODESIA POLICE, "D" COY., ARMY POST OFFICE, N. RHODESIA, JULY 15TH, 1916

Dear Sir:—The Askool of No. 1 Section, "D" Coy., N. R. P. wish you please to accept their best thanks for your most welcome gift.

I have much pleasure in adding my own thanks to those of my thirty black pirates, who are doing their small share in helping walk over the last German colony in Africa.

Yours Sincerely, Eric Alexander, Sgt. No. 14, N. R. Rifles, attd N. R. P.

LETTERS RECEIVED BY MRS. WM. J. MCQUOID

The King commands me to assure you of the true sympathy of His Majesty and the Queen in your sorrow.

ASQUITH My Dear Mrs. McQuoid, Long before this can reach you, news of your son's death will have been cabled.

It fell to my sad lot to bury your boy who was killed in action, June 29, 1916. His end was mercifully sudden, as he was almost instantly unconscious after being hit in the head by a sniper's bullet.

It would do you good to hear his chums speak of their affection for him. It was not my privilege to have known him personally, but I have got nothing but words of praise of his life and conduct.

His grave is in a pretty little military cemetery in Renninghels, Belgium. There are three caretakers, so you can rest assured that things are tended with care.

May God comfort your sad hearts and give you and yours together with him who has gone the abundant reward and sacrifice.

Yours very truly, W. BEATTIE, Lt. Col. and C. M. G., Belgium, Aug. 10, 1916.

Dear Mrs. McQuoid, A few words from myself and the boys of the Platoon, of which your dear son Charlie was a member. I hope you shall forgive me for not writing before, but time could not allow me.

I have no doubt but you have received word from Ottawa of the death of your dear son Charlie. While in the trenches last and while the Germans were shelling our trenches, dear Charlie, with a number of his comrades was wounded; he was taken from us, and I believe it is my place to write you as it happens to be his Platoon Sergeant. We were all sorry to see poor Charlie go, but he went without suffering any pain and while standing at his post.

MARRIED

BALKAM-SADLER Unostentatious and most delightfully informal, was the wedding, on Thursday last, which took place at the home of the bride's father, Edwin Sadler, Spring street, Calais, at four o'clock p.m., when Miss Ruth Gladys Sadler and McLehlan Balkam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Balkam of Milltown, were united in marriage, by Rev. John Jones of Knight Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church.

The house was prettily decorated with flowers and the ceremony took place under a beautiful floral bell of sweet peas and greenery.

The bride was given away by her father, and her sister, Mrs. Hugh Smith, most attractively gowned, was matron of honor, and wore a most becoming going away gown of blue chiffon headed with Gainsboro hat of blue and gray.

At the close of the ceremony, which was attended only by the immediate families of the bride and groom, refreshments were served, after which the happy couple took the train for a short stay in Boston, en route for Baltimore, Md., where they will reside.

They received the usual number of handshakes and useful bridal gifts, both being popular in the social circles. Congratulations and good wishes go with them in their life's journey.—Courier.
