Indeed, after Pentecost the Apostle John went still further and declared, "The whole world lieth in the Wicked One." Lesson IX.—Second Quarter, For May 30, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, 11 Sam. vi, 1-19; Ps. xxiv-Memory Verses, Ps. xxiv, 7-10-Golden Text, Ps. cxxii, 1-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

David having been established as king over all Israel began at once to Lord, the symbol of the presence of the Lord in the midst of His people. The last record of the ark was when cart with an offering; the men of Bethshemesh transgressed by looking into in the house of Abinadab in the hill (1 Sam, vii, 1). I think that there is no mention of it during the reign of Saul. In our lesson chapter and in chapter vii, 2, it is mentioned sixteen times, and in the parallel record in I Chron. xiii, xv and xvi it is mentioned twenty-five times. It always suggests righteousness which God requires, but also that righteousness provided in Christ, who is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. The blood on the mercy seat speaks of the sacri fice on Calvary, and the cherubim beaten out of the same piece of gold as the mercy seat tell of the oneness of Christ with His redeemed.

The Lord of hosts dwelling beween the cherubim (verse 2; I Chron. xiii, 6; I Sam. iv, 4; Ps. Ixxx, 1) tells of the mercy of God in Christ and of His provision for communion with us (Ex. xxv, 21, 22), for it is our privi lege to say "Truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ" (I John i. 3). Although David's desire to provide a place for the ark in Jerusalem was com mendable, he was certainly out of fellowship with God in the way he took to accomplish it and in his adopting the method of the Philistines, when he really knew better, as we shall see. Christ. During this period, now David's folly in the matter of a new art to bear the ark instead of the shoulders of the priests (chapter vii. 3; 2 Chron. xiii, 7; xv, 2, 12-15) brought about the death of Uzzah, terror in the heart of David and the ark resting for three months in the house of Obededom. When the Lord instructs us as to how He desires His work to be done there is nothing for us to do but obey and avoid all methods but His own.

One of the most grievous things in so called church work of our day is the vorldly methods which seem to have been adopted on all sides instead of prayer and fasting and looking to the Lord alone to carry on His work in His way by His Holy Spirit. As truly as the Lord gave Moses that plan of the tabernacle and David the plan of the temple (Ex. xxv. 9, 40; 1 Chron gestions or improvements or modifica
