NTFORD

TO.
amilton, (3 stores); London;
rines, St. Thomas, Stratford, plendid she had done with this erection she burst found herself at an inner gate openory of ing upon a wide sweep of golden d made gravel upon which stood the great solemn portico before the entrance cor.

Madame was at home, adrey learned, and she was con uted through a splendid baronial h l and down a wide carpeted e ridor into a sunny south room of noble proportions, which appeared to be less the drawing-room of the house than the private apartment of its mistress. And here Audrey found herself quietly yet cordially welcomed by Mrs. Lebreton.

Your Effort---Your Success

Here is your opportunity to help your favorite candidate win the best prize ever offered in this part of Ontario. It costs no more to have your friends have one of these big prizes. Think what it would mean if your single subscription would be the winning of the grand prize in your district. Think of this and act to-day.

5 for 1 To-day. Help Your Favorite Candidate

Any prize being tied for by two or more candidates, a prize identically the same will be given to the candidates tying.

Help Your Favorite Candidate

Turn your spare time into an auto. You can if you will do your part these days of Big Votes. Time is your worst enemy. Candidates will have no one to blame but themselves if they fail to win in this great contest.

Candidates, get busy, 50,000 votes for every yearly subscription sent in before Saturday, Oct. 7 at 8 p.m. Just think—five times as many votes as will be given at the last of the contest.

On Exhibition at
CHAS. BROWN'S and T. J.
BARTON AND SON'S Music
