THE DAILY KLONDIKE NUCCET: DAWSON, Y. T., SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1901

DAWSON'S PIONEER PAPER)

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
DAILY	and the second
Yearly, in advance	$40	00
Three months	п	00
Per month by carrier in city, in sdvance.	200	00
Single copies		25
SEMI-WEEKLY		22
Yearly, in advance	$24	00
NUM DIGITI DI CONTRACTORI CONTRACT
Three months	10.24	. 04
Par month by carrier in city, in advance.	2	00

NOTICE. When a newspaper offers its advertising space at nominal figure, it is a practical admission of "no reulation." THE KLONDIKE NUGGET asks a ad figure for its space and in justification thereof tarantees to its advertisers a paid circulation fre nes that of any other paper put neau and the North Pole. Sched het

LETTERS And Small Packages can be sent to the Oreeks by our carriers on the following days: Every Wednesday and Saturday to Eldorado, Bonansa, Hunker, Gold Run, Sulphur, Quarts and Ca

SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1901.

NO PERMANENT INJURY.

Open gambling in Dawson is now thing of the past. At 12 o'clock last buyers and consumers of goods or no night the closing order went into effect goods can be sold. This fact, it apand henceforth the operation of games of chance, commonly known as banking games, will be strictly prohibited. tion in Dawson dates from today. There are varying opinions as to the wisdom of the closing order and equally differing views as to the effect which it will have upon the business interests announcement that he would cause the of the town. Discussion of the fisrt arrest and prosecution of all individuals point at this date, would be entirely futile as the law is in effect and be- that he did so in order to save to the yond question will be rigidly enforced. local office the credit of stamp cancel-As to the second point mentioned, the lations. His ukase sets forth that he Nugget has always held to the view. and reiterates that opinion today, that no legitimate interest in the town will of February 6, Postmaster Wright is. suffer permanent injury. It is to be quoted as follows: anticipated that until affairs adjust themselves to the new order of things, certain lines of trade which have catered particularly to the gambling pat- stitution. It is my intention not to ronage will feel the effect of their direct have the men arrested here. They can loss of business. But that effect should go as far as Eaton and be stopped be of a temporary nature only. The retirement of the gamblers will not lessen in any respect the amount of gold produced in the district nor will ings searched. If he is proved to have it serve to decrease for any length of letters he will be arrested and his mail time the volume of money in actual circulation. The money which in the past has gone over the gambling table will hereafter find its way into legitimate channels of trade. The temptation to gamble being removed men who have dodged their creditors in order to stake their earnings in games of chance will find themselves able to look after their obligations. Many men have become gamblers merely by reason of the and several times was torced to remind fact that they have been brought into one nervous little man to keep his hand continual contact with the games. If they never saw a game in operation they would never feel the impulse to move like that, and I'll pump the ple ar-re too civilized to be immoral, gamble. In such cases the closing or- slugs in you !" der is an undisguised blessing. It is a well known fact that the chief sufferers from open gambling are wageearners. The opportunity always present of realizing a "take" through chancing a small sum, presents an irresistible attraction to which it is a matter of small difficulty to yield. Scores of instances may be recalled of ing with them the savings of months of hasd toil and with the intention of investing the same to their own personal advantage, but in the end to risk little man had flashed his kodak and and lose all their hard earnings at the gaming table. In such instances if the temptation to gamble were not at hand, the loss in all probability would not have occurred.

0.

sumer. On the contrary the statement has been made authoritatively that the new company expects to be able to reduce expense of operation to such a point that material advantages will ultimately accrue to the consumer.

A moment's consideration will serve to indicate that this policy, is the logical plan of action for the consolidated company to pursue even though it be actuated entirely from selfish motives.

Millions of dollars have been invested in steamboats and plant equipment by the concerns and their sole hope of be th' time th' end iv th' line iv realizing a dividend upon the capital march is reached th' boss crusader is expended rests in the continued prosperity of the community in general.

Any movement which would tend to decrease the extent of mining operations or lessen the consumption of commodities, would effect an immediate depreciation in the value of the company's investment.

In brief, the commercial interests of the country cannot prosper unless the of th' law, an' comes a way a philcommunity prospers. There must be pears, is thoroughly appreciated by the new concern whose active opera-

To Protect Post Office.

Nome papers state that Postmaster Wright early in February made public attempting to carry letters or other mail matter to the States. It is charged would arrest all such carriers at Eaton and confiscate the mail. In an issue of the Nome Gold Digger

"The government tolerates no competition and forbids everyone but the regular carriers to carry out letters. I am acting within the limits of the conthere. I have notified Inspector Kimball, and everyone passing through Eaton with suspicious looking packages on his sled will have his belongwill be confiscated. "

He Certainly Was a Flend.

The stage was rolling along the canyon trail when suddenly the horses right, says another. "I haven't sold a reared back on their haunches as a lone highwayman with a Winchester appeared on the scene. "Step out of the hearse, gentlemen, and hands up!" he ordered. One by one they climbed out, with elevated hands.

The highwayman relieved the party from his pocket.

MR. DOOLEY ON REFORM.

Today of all days, being the first in Dawson of the period of prohibited gambling, the following from Mr, Dooley on the "Purity Crusade" is eminently appropriate :

"As a people, Hinnissy, we're th' greatest crusaders that iver was-f'r a hort distance. On a quarter-mile thrack we can crusade at a rate that wud make Hogan's frind, Godfrey th' Bullion, look like a crab. But th' throuble is th' crusade don't last afther th' first sprint. Th' crusaders drop out iv th' procission to take a dhrink or put a little money on th' ace, an' alone in th' job. an' his former followers is hurlin' bricks at him from the windows iv policy shops. The boss crusader always gets th' double cross." The police would not protect vice if it were not for the fact that "they've got to get th' money where it's comin' to thim, an' 'tis on'y comin' to thim where th' law an' vile human nature has a sthrange holt on each other. A polisman goes afther vice as an officer osopher.' When the crusade gets into full swing "th' polis becomes active, an' whin th' polis is active 'tis a good time f'r dacint men to wear marredg certyficates outside iv their coats. Hanyous monsters is nailed in th' act iv histin in a shell iv beer in a German garden; husbands wants in th' polis station to he r-ready to bail out their wives whin they're arrested f'r shoppin' afther four o'clock ; an' there's more joy over wan sinner rayturned to th' station thin f'r ninety an' nine that've ray-formed.

"The boss crusader is havin' th time iv his lilfe all th' while. His picther is in th' papers ivery mornin, an' his sermons 18 a directbry iv places iv amusement. He says to himself, 'I am improvin' th' wurruld, an' me name will go down to th' generations as th' greatest vice buster iv th' cinchry. Whin I get through, they wont be enough crime left in th' city to amuse a sthranger fr'm Hannybal. Missoury, f'r twinty minyits,' he says. That's where he's wrong. Afther a while people gets tired iv th' pastime. They want somewhere to go nights. Mosts people ain't victous, Hinnissy, an' it takes vice to hunt vice. That accounts f'r polismen. Besides th' horse show or th' football games or somethin' else excitin', divarts their attintion, an' wan day th' boss crusader finds that he's alone in Sodom.

"' 'Vice ain't so bad, afther all. I notice business was betther whin 'twas rampant,' says wan la-ad. Sure, ye're single pink shirt since that man Parkers closed th' faro sgames,' says he. Th' theayter business ain't what it was whin they was more vice.' says another. 'This ain't no Connecticut vil lage,' he says. 'So 'tis no use thryin o inthrajoose soomchury legislation in this impeeryal American city,' he says, where people come pursooed by th' sheriff fr'm ivry corner iv th' wurruld,' Later in the day Werobke appeared he says. 'Ye can't make laws f'r this "What's the matter with you?" he community that wud suit a New Engat the office of the United States subroared finally. "You make another land village, where,' he says 'th' peotreasury with a handful of burned leather and currency, which, he said, represented his (savings for several he says, 'Vice,' he says, 'goes a long "Please let me," pleaded the little way tow'rd makin' life bearable,' he years. The stuff was sent to Washington, and if the experts can figure out man as his hand again slid toward his says. 'A little vice now an' thin is the denomination of the bills Werobke relished be th' best iv men,' he says. "Please let you !" roared the des- 'Who's this Parkers, anyhow, inthermay recover a part of his fortune. perado. "Please let you perforate me? ferin' with th' liberty iv th' indi-Old Stamp is Used. You're imposing on my generosity, vidooal, an', the says, 'makin' it hard Editor Nugget: to rent houses on th' side sthreets,' he Why this difference? Letters sent to your mit away from that pocket, or by says. 'I bet ye if ye investigate ye'll Dawson are addressed "Dawson, Y. find that he's no betther thin he shud T. ", while those leaving the Dawson, postoffice are postmarked "Dawson, N. "An' th' best Parkers gets out iv it W. T."?

To Her I Thought

DEVOTION

old Lintell To Which Hu ive.

Many hay Pail, dear !" lovely morning she ran dow the hall she looking man in modded bright the door for he "Your broth with a smile. Wes. We m in honor of it Mr. Lintell. for my 'bus !'' About an h emerged from well built you what heavy, in ate a leisurely ing a cigarette chair by the fit slowly round of disgust crept "Ugh !" he ribly mean a Shall I ever ge Presently he corner by the v essel. He sat gazed at the telt for his box them meditat them down and There was a next moment .c He lived on th got to be very and her brother "I won't in with a glance came to offer y

"Thanks! P Phil as the old door. "Fact in do much- mor thought of giv My birthday, half jocularly. Old Lintell

> He looked at th "It's going t plained Phil. les now-it ta The old man of the window. good deal of tho got up lat ay and loafe ever earned a in idleness by typist in a s rd from mor im heart and He glanced u "Might I s "I use

We are quite prepared to recognize the fact that certain interests will suffer as a consequence of the closing order, but we still hold steadfastly to the belief that from the standpoint of the general public the ultimate effect will be beneficial rather than otherwise.

MUST FAVOR THE CONSUMER.

Mr. Bryan's Commoner has put forward the idea that it is the intention of the trusts to raise prices to such an extent that ordinary people will be unable to buy the trust products. In view of the fact that the success of the trust idea is based entirely upon heavy consumption of the particular commodity concerned, it does not appear that Mr. Bryan's theory will stand very close inspection

A case somewhat in point is furnished by the recent consolidation of large Yukon commercial interests. The conncement has been made by the ent of the allied concerns at it is not the intention to altempt pocket. sonny, Look out! Look out! Keep the Eternal''-"But it won't hurt you !" protested be himself,' he says. the little man. "It won't hurt you at keep your rifle leveled. There! That's wig an' false whiskers."

And while the highwayman was reovering from his astonishment the snapped the button,-Ex,

Mud as a Life Saver. SIn London it was noticed that when he streets were muddy there was a narked diminution of diseases that were prevalent when dust is blowing. Catarrhal troubles are plentiful when people are compelled to inhale dust. Consumption, too, often gets its start from the breatbing of flying particles of filth." Add sufficient water to transform the dust into mud, and the power for harm is gone, for mud is not in-haled. The germs that infest dry dust become inert in mud, because these germs, vicious as they are, are too lazy Moreover, mud is very likely to get ultimately into the drain pipe and be germs are carried off where they can do no harm. Even when mud dries on the clothing and is brushed off the dust that arises therefrom does not ap-pear to be as dangerous as that which has not been recently wet.-Ex.

The Pacific Cold Storage Co. offers every facility for keeping frozen

Rex Hams, 25 cents, Eldorado Ware-ouse, Third avenue and Second street. The old standby, Seal of North Caro Black taffeta sliks at J. P. McLen men who have come into Dawson bring- all! Stand just as you are now and is to be able to escape fr'm town in a An Ignoramus from Hunker, V. T., or N. W. T., or Both or None.

We fit glasses. Ploneer drug store. Holland herring. Selman & Myers.

Judging Customers.

"I don't make any more mistakes in judging customers," said the china salesman, "because I've given up judging them. I've had my lesson.

store one day and asked to look at sibility that the present parliament will make an appropriation for a new dinner sets. He was one of the plain, cancelling stamp for the Dawson postold fashioned, frock coat, white shirt, as about a $30 man. I wasn't sure that Best mixed drinks in town-Sideboard. he'd stand even that much, but I thought I'd risk it, and so I showed him one of the $30 sets. "He looked it over politely for a minute or two and then said, 'Yes, that is pleasing, but it isn't-er-just what I had in mind.'

"I took him over to the $40 table then, and he examined the things in to go anywhere unless they are car- the same quiet, polite way, but I could see that they were not what he wanted. 'This is an attractive design,' he said 'and I rather like the color of that, but -er- my thought was something a little different from either.'

"Well, that brought us to the $50 and $60 goods, and it was the same with them. They were, all very pretty and very nice, and he was so sorry to make me so much trouble, but would I mind showing him something a little etter?

"I had made up-my mind , by this time that he was bluffing, that he wasn't going to buy anything anyway, so I thought I'd bluff too. I took him own the store to a set marked $250. He looked it over more carefully and didn't turn a hair when I told him

(The only reasonable answer to the above is that the old stamp bearing the letters N. W. T. is still used, although Y. T. has been the proper thing ever since this became the Yukon territory. There is a glaring pos-"An old gentleman came into the office at the present session.) black how tie kind, and I sized him

Lace Curtains

Curtain Muslins

Artistic Painting

Wall Paper in Stock

ANDERSON BROS.

SECOND AVENUE

REMOVAL!

Orpheum

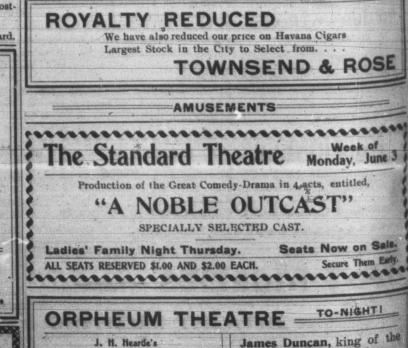

Both branches of this bank will be consolidated at its new office on the water front, Cor. First Ave. and Second St. The bank will be prepared to pay the Paid Up Capital, Eight Million Dollars.

Best Prices for Gold Dust

and to transact a General Banking Business. The Canadian Bank of Commerce has 61 offices in Canada, 1 in Great Britain [at London], and 6 in the United States, including New York, San Francisco, Seattle, New Orleans, Portland, Ore., and Skagway. We have a completely equipped Assay Office with an assayer who has a certificate of competency from the chief assayer of the United States assay office at New York.

H. T. WILLS, Manager.

James Duncan, king of the air in the Spanish rings. Dolan & Maurettus, two men from Sandy Bar. Minstrels out art." Phil pulled i ened it for th Mr. Liutell t . They we th no sign hatever.

Well?" as ared his siste Give me your Mr. Lintel! ceeded to of e truth-the nd a wave o

hil's cheek. "It's too rid Old Mr. Lint made his w I'm sorry," ought to k hil laughed the old man table sort o an whose m nironted with

He strold Of course I y-shall pay "And he sa

ility, that I hat I ought to eping Mad

He glanced e sun was s lked to the o half crows re. Unthin to his pocks

d stick, ma He meant to ut his great uld think o cli's words.

Phil Halstan, dd be the t aniked for to the ant to he table. N ing rather ident's car

