The burglars are causing more talk

I do hope those burglars won't break into the police station some night. I am not going to pick the president for the Young Conservatives, but Pd like to.

This snow is welcomed by everyone except the man who owns a corner lot. That's me.

You're wanted at the Big meeting of the Young Men's LiberalConservative Club on Wednesday night.

I suppose some of those wicked Tories will be blaming the local burg-laries on the Ross Government.

The candidate selected at Ridgetown to-day will have the redemp-tion of West Kent to his credit.

Wonder if Ross knows anothing about the continued in our next series of robberies that are happening.

How would it do for the Council to license those burglars, and then the police wouldn't need to bother? Times are getting hard, but that won't prevent the young man's best

They do say that Peter Ryan, the government auctioneer of timber limits, objects to, A. B. McCoig's advent at Toronto. He's atraid Archie will get his job at half the price.

It has been an unwritten law in this city that a Conservative should have the mayoralty for two years and a Liberal for two years. It is now the Conservative's turn.

I'm getting lonesome and my pen must have lost its cunning. For nearly six months now I haven't had a learned judge and intelligent jury trying to figure out just what I re-ally did mean to say.

I would like to call the attention of the Health Inspector to a dead dog that has lain since Saturday amongst the tombstones across from The Planet office. I'm always ready and willing to do all in my power to secure decent interment for my enemies and their friends.

WHY, THEY JUST LOVE US. The Chatham Planet does not appear to be any more popular with the Grits of East Kent than The Times is with those of East Eigin. But the Grits are hard to please.—
