BRIGHT BALMY BREEZES ON HAPPY PLEASURE-SEEKERS

Erieau Promises To Be More Popular Than Ever This Year — Many Improvements Made — Guests Are Arriving Fast

Erieau, the spot where Chathamites love to spend the major portion of the hot summer months, fishing, sailing, reading, bathing, and generally lounging away in quiet ease, the days which otherwise might be spent, sweating in city homes, never presented a prettier nor more alluring appearance than it does today. Although the holiday season has but nicely opened, the place is swarmed with happy pleasure seekers, and it bids well to become even more popular than it has ever been in previous years.

The following notes gathered from a pleasant trip to this splendid resort will be of considerable local interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dell and son Harry, of this city, spent Sunday and Monday at Sandy Knove.

S. A. Reid, of the post office staff, spent Sunday at Sandy Knove.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kerr have moved out to their summer residence.

Mr. and Mrs. John Park and family have located in their fine new cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Northwood and family are settled for the summer at Ubeda Rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Hundredmark, of Cleveland, have again arrived at the Eau and will spend the hot months at Hundredmark Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Oldershaw have again taken up their summer residence at Mushroom Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Manson Campbell and family are comfortably settled at the Eau for the summer.

The Greening Cottage is again alive with summer residents and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Falls and Mrs. R. V. Bray were among the early arrivals at this popular resort.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith and daughter Belle will again be found enjoying the cool lake breezes. Miss Flossie Smith will join them when the Collegiate Institute examinations are concluded.

Ed. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan will occupy the Jones Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Turner, Robert Turner and John Vanstone, of Chatham, visited the Eau over the holiday and indulged in the excellent fishing.

A number of the sail boats are already in commission, although the season has just opened up. The Eric B. and the Arthur were seen spreading their sails over the Eau yesterday. The "Aval" was successfully launched last evening and will be one of the busiest sail boats at the Eau this summer.

Theo. Pickering, of the Blenheim Tribune, is found drinking in the splendid breeze and capturing his store of the fish.

Dr. Geo. Fletcher and family will spend the summer at the Eau. The doctor, who is a well known ex-Chathamite, is not in the best of health, but expects to recuperate considerably during the next couple of months.

Wm. Hall, of Blenheim, express agent and general jolly good fellow, undertakes to specially welcome every new visitor. The Eau would not be complete without Mr. Hall.

W. P. Harris, of the Toronto Telegram staff, is one of the new arrivals. He heard of Chatham's famous resort and he and his family will spend the summer there.

Harry W. Anderson, of the Toronto News staff, returned home last evening after spending a couple of days with his many friends at the Eau.

Several long strings of fine fish were caught yesterday by enthusiastic anglers. The fishing is reported excellent.

Mrs. Abram and daughter, Miss Esther Abram, will arrive at the Eau on Wednesday to spend the summer holiday season.

Mrs. Hillman and Gertrude Hollman have rented Jubilee Cottage for the summer. They will be joined later by eight of the Park street Methodist choir girls and a series of jolly events are looked forward to.

Fairview Cottage has been opened up for the summer by Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, of Cleveland.

Two new cottages have been erected on the west end of the lake shore last season. They are owned by J. G. Kerr and J. M. Park. They are quite a valuable acquisition to the beauty and growth of the place. Chris Smith has also erected a new cottage and Manson Campbell's cottage has received a new coat of paint and fine new verandah.

Mr. Ross, of Blenheim, is the new postmaster. He has also opened up a grocery and general provision store.

The residents have learned with pleasure that Mr. McGarvey has again been appointed by the Pere Marquette to manage the Eau train service during the summer months. A more popular, courteous and obliging conductor never worked on this run, and prospective cottagers may depend upon it that their every comfort will be studiously looked after.

Mrs. (Dr.) McKeough and daughter, Miss Mary, spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday at the Eau.

Walter Elliott and "Mac" McLeod returned home last evening, after spending a couple of days with friends at the Beach.

Fred Guttridge spent the holiday with Erieau friends.

Sandy Knove is once more opened up for the summer. Mrs. Arnold, Oshershaw and young son Jack are guests here. Miss Kate Garrett will join the party this week.

A happy party of young people took a pleasant trip to Government Park in launch yesterday and report having had the most enjoyable picnic. They were the guests of Miss Aggie Phillimore for the day. Those who composed the party were, Miss Marion Gemmill and Miss Susie Taylor, Messrs. John R. Smith, J. Smith, Findlay Jackson, Mitchell and Campbell.

One of the most recent improvements to the Eau made since last season is the new light for the Shrewsbury dock, which was procured from the Dominion Government by Herbert S. Clements, M. P. The light is a great boon to sailors and yachtmen and Mr. Clements is receiving daily and hearty thanks from the residents of this much frequented resort.

Six Days Imprisoned in Mine.
London, July 2.—After having been imprisoned for six days in the flooded Caradoc Vale (Wales) Colliery, two miners of the six originally imprisoned there were rescued alive yesterday and three bodies were brought out by the rescue party. The search will be kept up. The two men rescued had subsisted for a week on a few candles.

Argos Always in Front.
Hendon, Eng., July 2.—The Argonauts (Canada) beat Trinity (Cambridge) yesterday in the first heat for the grand challenge cup. The Argonauts won, after a magnificent race, by a bare length. Time, 7 mins., 20 secs. The Argos were always in front. The Argonauts row the Thames' crew on Tuesday.

Chamberlain's Polley.
London, July 2.—(C. A. P.)—Joseph Chamberlain, at Sandon Heath, repeated his desire to treat the friends in the colonies better than foreigners, and concluded by saying: "My policy for this country is fair trade; my policy for the Empire is trade for all and all for each."

MET DEATH BY DROWNING

Sad Fatality at Wallaceburg Happened on Saturday.

MR MURDOCK THE VICTIM

(Special to The Planet.)

Wallaceburg, June 30.—On Saturday afternoon about half past five o'clock Mr. Johnston Murdock, a familiar resident of the town, attempted to cross the river in an old boat. In some way the boat capsized and the unfortunate man was thrown into the water and was drowned before any assistance could be rendered him. Several men tried to get his body by using pike poles, but it was found necessary to drag the river before he was found. His remains were taken to the residence of his brother William, from whence burial will take place on Monday. Deceased was about 53 years old and unmarried.

Mr. Gerald Chubb, who has been spending his holidays at his home here, returned to Toronto yesterday.

Mrs. James M. Rankin and son are visiting relatives in St. Clair, Mich.
