

WHISKEY AND WATER.

A quantity of whiskey was destroyed in Goderich, by being thrown into Deer Creek...

The Admiral and the Midshipman. On board Admiral K's flagship, on the North American ship, there was a wild and a midshipman as ever vied for the lead at the South Carolina. Duo in particular, named Frank, was always in trouble for conducting himself in a disorderly manner...

COLOUR ON BOARD.—The House of Representatives of the South Carolina Legislature has passed a bill prohibiting any distinction of color in hotels, cars or steamboats. Several of the white Republican members voted against the bill...

THE ADULTERATED WHISKEY.—The excellent old gentleman above alluded to had determined to put an end to his worthless existence, when he came to a full realization of what he had done, but looking over a morning paper he saw an advertisement for a very good day for suicides any hour, he read about the Deer Creek whiskey, that he had been drinking...

THE EFFECT AMONG THE FEMALE PORTION OF THE community was scarcely less terrible than among the men. What you think of a company of men old ladies getting hiarated at a tea table, carrying out their creases, unconsciously putting themselves outside of a glass of whiskey in every cup...

THE VOYAGE OF LIFE.—Life bears us on like the stream of a mighty river. Our boat glides down the channel, and the playful murmuring of the little brook and the windings of the grassy borders...
