Popularity Papers—Being the Fifth of a Few Little Talks on the Ingredients of Popularity.

It is not only what you put into a cake or pudding which makes it good, but what you leave out. It is not only because you put plenty of eggs into the pudding and cook it just long enough that it is delectable, but because you do not put in too much salt or any other flavoring.

And it is even so with the "huge porridge of popularity." Among my friends is a young woman who is extremely pretty and very clever, a generous girl, lavish with the money she earns, a cultured, well developed woman interested in other people and in the big world. By all appearances this girl ought to be extremely popular. And yet she is not. On the contrary, her friends are far and few between.

Why is it? Well, it is not because there is anything lacking in the "porridge of popularity," but because there is too much of a certain thing in it, for this girl is one of those people who are so thoroughly exacting that other folks are afraid of them. She wants everyone to measure up to an impossible standard of culture, clothing and character; and she condemns those who fall, with no uncertain condemnation. Naturally, many of us common folks are self-conscious and uncomfortable in her august presence and consequently we do not seek her company.

This girl is a type of the people who drive their friends away by asking too much of them. There is such a thing as asking too little of our friends; of failing to encourage them to be their best selves. Stevenson's ideal "to keep my friends without capitulation" paints a friendship in which each shall encourage the other to reach his greatest height. But such encouragement and stimulus is a very different thing from setting one's self up as a judge to condemn others for failing to measure up to an impossible standard of excellence.

Then there is another kind of exacting which is equally deadly to popularity, and that is the super-sensitiveness of people who are always complaining because their friends do not treat them right. "You have called at Mr. So and So's since you've been to see me." "You scarcely spoke to me the other night. I suppose you were too busy with your new friend." Such are the accusations with which these people make their would-be friends miserable, and as one likes to be made miserable "would-be" is very apt to be changed to "wouldn't be."

It is said that Atticus, the Greek philosopher, was once asked how he kept his friends so well, and that he answered: "Because I never expect anything of them." That is a rather cynical statement, but it is certainly true that the person who expects too much of those about him will receive nothing.

TWENTY YEARS.

Makes a great difference in most women. They are troubled with "nerves"—they suffer from backache, headache, sleeplessness, a sensation of irritability or twitching, hot flashes, dizzy spells, or many other symptoms of female weakness. The local disorder and inflammation should be treated with Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets and the irregularity and weakness of the female system corrected and strengthened with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The strain upon the young woman or the woman of middle age—upon the nerve and blood forming structures—may be too great for her strength. This is the time to take this restorative tonic and strength-giving nerve and regulator. For over forty years sold by druggists for women's peculiar weaknesses and distressing ailments. The one remedy so perfect in composition and so good in curative effects as to warrant its makers in printing its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. The one remedy which absolutely contains neither alcohol nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

Mrs. Scott.

Fallout letter selected at random from a large number of similar ones and cited merely to illustrate these remarks: "In the winter of 1908, I became greatly run down and irregular," writes Mrs. Henry Scott, of Swan Creek, Mich., Route 1, Box 48. "I was in bed often weeks and got no better. The doctor said I would have to have an operation, but to that I would not listen. My husband purchased two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I started to take this remedy I could not walk across the floor, but after I had taken three bottles I could feel myself gaining, so I dropped the doctor and took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Only for it I think I would have been dead—I really believe it saved my life. I feel better now than in twenty years."

Household Notes.

Eau de cologne will remove candle grease.

Cabbage should always be boiled in two waters.

Tar stains can be taken out with oil of turpentine.

Overdone food is always worse than underdone.

To keep celery and lettuce fresh, stand the roots in cold water.

Use a milk skimmer to lift poached eggs out of the water.

Use the ironing fire for preparing stock for soups of baking puddings.

Put castors on your woodbox if you would have it handy to move about.

One secret of good tea or coffee is to make it with freshly boiled water.

Japanese lanterns can be used year after year if they are put away carefully.

Change dish water often—it is better both for the hands and the dishes.

If you wish to save a lemon that has been cut, turn it upside down on a butter dish.

A charming nursery screen can be covered with the prints that the small child loves best.

Never bang an oven door, if you don't wish your bread or cake to fall. Close it gently instead.

To take machine oil out of white materials, dip the spot into cold water while it is fresh.

Slight scratches on mahogany furniture can be removed by rubbing with a bit of pecan meat.

Woman's Best Help to the good health which comes from regular action of the organs of digestion and elimination—to freedom from pain and suffering—to physical grace and beauty—is the harmless, vegetable remedy

Excursion to Newfoundland

The Newfoundlanders of Boston and nearby cities and towns are looking forward to the excursion which will be held in the summer of 1914 under the auspices of the Newfoundland Excursion Club of Boston. The Club was organized about a year ago and is composed of Newfoundlanders. The officers are:—

President—William B. Sommerville.
Rec. Sec.—Simon J. Hogan.
Fin. Sec.—Edward Molloy.
Treasurer—Samuel Downs.

Trustees—Samuel Goss and Walter Duggan.

Auditing Committee—Jeremiah Hallaren, Richard Devana and Denis Raffan.

The following is a partial list of members:—

Samuel Downs, Walter Duggan, S. J. Hogan, John E. Whittle, William B. Sommerville, Patrick B. Judge, Jeremiah Hallaren, John Graham, James Murphy, Joseph Wakeham, Bartholomew Mulcahy, Mrs. and Mr. Patrick O'Hearn, William Graham, Edward Molloy, Daniel Kieley, Nicholas Halligan, James Skiffington, Denis Raffan, Richard Mackay, James Scully, Saul Goss, Patrick Brown, Thomas Brown, Richard F. Devana, James Murphy, Mrs. and Mr. John Manning, Mrs. Wm. Murphy, Mrs. and Mr. Stephen Puddister, Thomas Bouzan, Miss K. Angel, Michael Byrnes, Thomas Walsh, John Walsh, Maurice Fitzgerald, John Dunphy, Thomas Parnell, Thomas Lee, R. J. Devana, Brian Brown, Mrs. Thomas Quinn, Leo Halligan, Thomas Holland, Edward Hanrahan, Michael Connors.

The Club hold meetings every month to make the necessary arrangements, as it is the intention to encourage as many Newfoundlanders as possible to go down to dear old Terra Nova on the excursion. Past experience have clearly demonstrated the necessity of making an early start so that ample time will be given to all those who are desirous of making the trip. At the last monthly meeting, which was largely attended, it was voted to have the newspapers of St. John's sent to the rooms of the Club every week in order to keep informed of what is happening in the Homeland. Some very interesting discussions are held at the meetings pertaining to questions of Newfoundland. In conjunction with making preparations for the excursion, the Club also have other attractive features. A grand social and dance was held in the Memorial Hall, Boston, and it was very successful as well as an enjoyable affair. The spacious hall was filled with Newfoundlanders and their Bostonian friends, the hall was also beautifully decorated with bunting—the Newfoundland flag was conspicuously in evidence. Preparations are now being perfected for another social to be held in the early fall, and the committee of arrangements are confident that this will surpass anything undertaken by the Newfoundlanders in Boston. The members of the Club are endeavouring to have this excursion two years hence something which will be long remembered by all those who will be fortunate to participate in.

The Club had as its guest at the last regular meeting one of St. John's most popular business men in the person of Mr. Patrick Hickey, he received a genuine Newfoundland welcome and was given a glad surprise to meet so many of his old time friends and acquaintances.

Visitors to Boston should communicate with the President, William B. Sommerville, or the Secretary, Simon J. Hogan, 137 Winthrop Street, Roxbury, and they will be sure of a hearty reception from the Excursion Club.
