

PARABLE OF THE SUPPER

LESSON II, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JULY 15.

Text of the Lesson, Luke xiv, 15-24. Commit Verses, 22-24—Golden Text, Luke xiv, 15—Commentary by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In our last lesson we saw the religious leaders of the people contending with Him because He healed a woman on the Sabbath day; but He put them to shame and showed His followers to rejoice. So shall it be again when those who cast out others for His sake say, Let the Lord be glorified, but He shall appear to the joy of His people and His enemies shall be ashamed (Isa. lvi, 5). He added a parable concerning the coming of the Kingdom of God, which was the Kingdom of Israel at that time, and are having a fulfillment in the church today. He added a parable concerning the coming of the Kingdom of God, which was the Kingdom of Israel at that time, and are having a fulfillment in the church today.

16. "Then said He unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many. This parable is somewhat similar to that in Matt. xxi, but that was spoken during Passion week in Jerusalem, and this while on His journey to Jerusalem. He had just said that Jerusalem would be destroyed, and the Jews would be scattered abroad, and the Kingdom of God would be established in the hearts of men. He then told this parable to show that the Kingdom of God was not of this world, and that it was not to be obtained by outward show, but by inward grace. He then told this parable to show that the Kingdom of God was not of this world, and that it was not to be obtained by outward show, but by inward grace.

17. "Come; for all things are now ready." This was the message which the servants went forth, saying: "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." The salvation of Jerusalem was at hand, and the Kingdom of God was at hand. He then told this parable to show that the Kingdom of God was not of this world, and that it was not to be obtained by outward show, but by inward grace. He then told this parable to show that the Kingdom of God was not of this world, and that it was not to be obtained by outward show, but by inward grace.

READ THE DIRECTIONS ON THE WRAPPER

Go on rubbing and scrubbing, wearing and tearing to pieces yourself and the clothes. You don't have to.

SURPRISE Soap makes clothes sweet, snowy white, never yellow, with out such toil, and will not injure the finest fabrics. Do not boil or scald the clothes, but wash the "Surprise" way on wash day. You only need a teakettle of hot water—a cake of Surprise Soap—cold water, either hard or soft, and READ THE DIRECTIONS ON THE WRAPPER.
