Shakespeare And Shoes.

As the great immortal poet comprehended the littlest babe to the most decrepit old man in his "Seven Ages of Man," so do we embrace them in our store policy.
We clothe the feet of the babe when first it adopts shoes and we furnish the passing man with covering for his wearied feet.
Not only do we have shoes for people of all ages, but we have many kinds for each age, making it a pleasure to pick from our stock.

AT VANKLEEK HILL

Several Residences and Business Places on the Main Street Destroyed.

Vankleek Hill, Aug. 18.--About midnight a fire broke out in the outbuildings in the rear of the Windsor Hotel, Main street. The flames spread rapidly, and soon the adjoining shops were on fire. The residence and hardware store of Henry Cheney, the house and shop occupied by Rev. Dr. W. K. and Miss Anderson, Union street, Blanchard, merchant tailor, and J. Londeau, barber; John Farmer's harness shop, dental office of Drs. Howes and Patrick, and D. J. Jamieson & Son's store, as well as the Windsor Hotel, Main street, are totally destroyed. The fire is now under control. Insurance and loss at present unknown.

Insurgents Shut Out

Will Have No Part in the Control of Manila.

Tearful Sight and Stories From Camp Wikoff.

Warm Welcome Awaiting Sampson, Schley and the N. A. Squadron.

Big Death Rate in Santiago--80 Men Mached by Spaniards--Reducing the U. S. Army.

Washington, Aug. 19.--The war department has made public the order sent to Gen. Merritt regarding the occupation of the city of Manila by the American forces. The order follows:

"The president directs that there must be no joint occupation with the insurgents. The United States, in the possession of Manila city, Manila bay and harbor, must preserve the peace and protect persons and property within the territory occupied by their military and naval forces. The insurgents and all others must recognize the military occupation and authority of the United States, and the cessation of hostilities proclaimed by the president. Use whatever means in your judgment are necessary to this end. All law-breaking people must be treated alike."

PITEROUS SCENES. Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point, L. I., Aug. 19.--Some of the pitiful stories of death coming in here make one wish war was a thing of romance and not a reality. Here's James Scanlon, one of the Seventy-first New York, wounded at San Juan hill. He was shot six times in that fight. His mother lives in Brooklyn.

At Siboney the hospital surgeon told Scanlon he had an hour to live. He laughed back.

"I'll live to get back to my mother and ask her forgiveness for running away."

He did, and died with his head on her breast last night.

Today they brought off the Matanzas the body of one of the boys in blue whom no one could identify.

Think of it! Fighting in Cuba for the flag, coming home on a transport named "The Fearful," and being found in his black depths, and being taken to shore--native land--unidentified. That is war.

There is that unknown soldier of the Ninth Regiment, shot down on the first day at San Juan. A soldier who lives to tell the story says:

"I came across him lying beside the path that we took to get into the open from a clump of trees where we had been held in reserve. He had been shot through the head, and was dying as fast as the blood came out of his wounds. Some fellows with me stopped to give him a drink, for we knew that he was thirsty, and I raised up his head so he could drink."

"He could not even raise his hand when I touched him, but he opened his eyes and said:

"Who are you?"

"We're the Ninth," said one of the fellows; "take a drink, and you'll feel better."

"No," said he; "don't mind me here; I'm done for. I'm the Ninth, too, and I'm dying. Keep your water; you'll need it up in the firing line, where you belong. They want you there; but I'm done."

TO WELCOME SAMPSON AND SCHLEY. New York, Aug. 19.--Rear Admiral Sampson and Schley, and the six vessels of the North Atlantic squadron that are coming to this port are expected to arrive some time this afternoon. If the squadron arrives off Sandy Hook when expected it will be met by a flotilla of excursionists, and escorted up the bay to an anchorage off Tompkinsville.

As the warships pass in at Sandy Hook the guns at Fort Hancock come into full salute. At Fort Wadsworth and Hamilton more salutes will be fired.

Judging by the number of excursion steamers and tugs being engaged for tomorrow, the river will be crowded with all kinds of craft, loaded with sight-seers. The Spanish warships have been hired for private parties. The parade, if the warships arrive on time, is to start at 10 o'clock from the anchorage off Tompkinsville. The warships will steam slowly up the Hudson River to Grant's tomb, where a national salute will be fired. They will then make a wide circle and slowly steam back to the man-of-war anchorage.

BIG DEATH RATE AT SANTIAGO. Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 19.--Yesterday morning General Wood, military governor of Santiago, increased the local police force with additions from various regiments. There has been trouble from soldiers who have disobeyed orders, and there have been some thefts, several street fights, at least one murder, and a good deal of drunkenness, so that an exceptionally large force is needed to preserve order.

There were several Spanish transports in the harbor awaiting the embarkation of Spanish troops. The general appearance of the men is pitiful. There has been much sickness among them, and within the last two days over 200 bodies have been buried.

The death rate in the city is about 70 per day. The heavy rains increase the fever among the soldiers and the inhabitants alike.

EIGHTY MEN MACHETED. Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 19, noon.--Reports coming in from all sections of outrages committed within the Spanish lines. Doubtless many of these are exaggerated, but the rumors of a massacre at Clarice are confirmed. Some of the natives there took refuge in the belfry of the cathedral and fired on the Spanish troops, but they were overpowered and macheted to the number of 80.

YELLOW JACK UNDER CONTROL. New York, Aug. 19.--The physicians in charge of the detention hospital at Camp Wikoff reported that there had been no increase in yellow fever cases since yesterday. There are seven cases.

A CLOUDBURST

Causes Death and Destruction in a Pennsylvania Town.

Five People Drowned and a Number Missing.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 19.--A cloudburst at Bridgeville, about five miles south of here, this morning, caused Saw Mill Run to overflow, causing great damage in the west end.

Five people who were standing on an embankment when it gave way are known to have been drowned, and others are missing.

The names of those drowned are: Regis Loftus, Mrs. K. Loftus, Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, unknown child, unknown man.

The accident occurred near the foot of Mill street, where a vast crowd had congregated to watch the rapidly increasing size and fury of Saw Mill Run.

Nine people are known to have been standing on that portion of the bank which gave way, among them Mrs. K. Loftus and her three children.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Annual Reports of the Board Give Much Satisfaction.

Increase of Usefulness Balance in the Treasury--Votes of Thanks to Officers.

Toronto, Aug. 19.--The annual meeting of the General Sunday School and Epworth League Board of the Methodist Church was held in the board room of the Wesley building yesterday. Rev. Dr. Carman was in the chair.

After devotional exercises the financial reports were presented. Mr. J. W. Flavell, general treasurer, read the annual report of the Epworth League, which showed a most satisfactory condition of affairs. The collection for the general fund amounted to $1,411, being an increase of $70 over last year. After all expenses had been paid a very satisfactory balance remains on hand.

Mr. Warring Kennedy, treasurer of the Sunday school, presented his annual statement. The collections for the Sunday school had amounted for the year amounted to $2,664.94. Out of these many poor schools in destitute localities have received aid in grants of periodicals, etc.

The annual report of the general secretary, Rev. A. C. Crews, was read and discussed. This report showed that there are 3,337 Sunday schools in the Canadian Methodist Church, with 270,223 scholars, being an increase of 136 schools and 17,783 scholars during the past four years. The home department is a feature which has been developed rapidly during the quadrennium. In 1895 there were 1,856 members. In 1898, 7,151, an increase of 5,295. There has been a very fine growth of the Sunday school periodicals published by the church.

The Epworth League report was full of encouraging facts and figures. There are now 65 Epworth Leagues and 898 Epworth Leagues of Christian Endeavor, besides a number of other societies. The total number of Young People's Societies in the church is 1,847, with 31,835 members. For missing the societies have raised during the year $12,159.80, an increase of $5,112.63 over the previous year. This has been largely the result of the efforts of the Students' Forward Movement for Missions, the promoters of which have displayed unusual activity. The Epworth League reading course has been a great success. Commencing three years ago with a circulation of 420 it has increased to 2,000. The general secretary gave a personal statement showing that during the past four years he had traveled 32,100 miles and had delivered 856 addresses, in pursuance of the duties of his office.

Resolutions of thanks to the general secretary, Rev. A. C. Crews, and to Messrs. J. F. Flavell and Warring Kennedy, treasurers of the board were unanimously passed.
