A TORONTO DEPUTATION WAIT ON THE FINANCE MINISTER.

Personal Matters.—The Latest Report Concerning the County of York Judge-ship.

Special Despatch to The World.

OTTAWA, March 3.—A deputation of members of parliament and representatives of educational institutions to day waited on the minister of finance in reference to the removal of the duty on books imported for college and public library use. The members for Toronto, and Ald. John Hallam, Senator Allen and Mr. T. G. Blackstock, all Toronto, formed part of the deputation. They urged that taxation should not be imposed upon knowledge, and contended that books not printed in this country were not inconsistent with the N. P., nor an injury to Canadian publishers. Sir Leonard Tilley said the difficulty was to draw the line between books published here and in foreign countries. Mr. Blackstock made a suggestion that all books should be taxed as at present and a rebate allowed on those sold to free libraries or educational institutions. The minister thought the point worthy of consideration. He asked the deputation to put their suggestions in writing, which they promised to do. Ald. Hallam remaining over for this purpose.

Sir John Macdonald gave one of his small but elegant dinner parties to-night. Among the guests were Lieut. Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Dewdney, Dalton McCarthy and wife and John Small and wife.

Major Dawson, Nicol Kingmill and A. H. Bonibee are in the city.

The latest report in connection with the vacancy in the York county judiciary is that Judge Boyd will be promoted to the judgeship and Henry O'Brien appointed junior judge.

The Toronto World

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 5, 1883.

THE LAST OF THE THIRTY CONGRESS.

Large Amount of Work Done in a Short Session.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Ten thousand, six hundred and fifty bills were introduced in the house this session and six hundred and fifty passed. Ten thousand, seven hundred and thirteen bills were introduced in the senate and six hundred and fifty passed.

There are 1500 bills on the house calendar. Two hundred and twenty-five have been passed by the senate. Five hundred and eighty-nine bills have been introduced in the house since the opening of the session to-day.

The house, by 122 to 115, adopted the conference report on the tariff bill.

PITTSBURGH, March 3.—The enabling and general act of incorporation of the Pennsylvania and Ohio canal company was passed by the senate, a severe blow at its interests, as well as to the interests of cotton, tie and wire rod manufacturers.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—At 2:05 a.m. the speaker announced the enrollment of the tariff bill passed by the senate and President Arthur.

The tariff bill has been signed by the president of the senate and President Arthur.

The senate at 3:15 came out of executive session and after the transaction of some routine business took a recess until 4 o'clock. When the senate reconvened the conference report on the Sunday civil bill was not ready and half an hour was spent waiting for it. It was received and a message that the house had agreed to it. It was adopted without dissent. A recess until 10 o'clock was then taken, and that hour's session was present, and it was some time before a quorum was obtained.

On motion of Senator Anthony a resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee to join a house committee to wait upon the president and inform him that congress had adjourned and that he was to adjourn. Senators Anthony and Bayard were appointed, and reported that the president had no further communication to make to congress. The galleries and corridors were crowded more densely than last evening and repeated appeals from the chamber were required to secure sufficient order on the floor to enable senators to be heard.

At precisely 12 o'clock Edmunds brought down the gavel and said, "Senators, the hour has arrived which by the constitution and laws of the United States is the hour of adjournment. It becomes the duty of the chair, therefore, to declare this session adjourned without day, and in doing so he wishes each of you pleasant and safe journey to your homes and every felicity in your future lives. At 2:30 the senate adjourned without day." (Applause.)

At 4:30 a motion was made for recess. On the evening and repeated appeals from the chamber a motion of no quorum. The usual session attendant on all night sessions were senators' lounges arranged around and smoked and told stories. At 5 o'clock Representative Besterwood moved to proceed to the business of the speaker's chair. This elicited a laugh and was ruled out. The number of sleeping members became larger, and paper balls and copies of old bills were hurled at them from all directions. Shortly before dawn Representative Young suggested a compromise, that at 11 o'clock the house should adjourn upon the whiskey bill and the election case. Handled off. An irregular and amusing session followed. At 9:30 the house took recess till 9:30. On re-assembling the house proceeded to take up the house bills with the senate. The session was a long one, although Holman protested in the name of the religious sentiment of the country against attending to the bill. On motion of Mr. Hancock, a committee was appointed to inform the president that congress was ready to adjourn. At 11:55 a committee reported that the president had no further communication to make and the house adjourned.

The aggregate of all the appropriation bills passed is $22,327,000 against $25,509,000 last year. The balance is $3,182,000.

The Pittsburg manufacturers of hoop iron and wire rod say their business is better than the tariff bill. The pig iron, sheet iron, and steel manufacturers also claim to be greatly crippled. All agree wages will have to be reduced.

THE BISHOP OF RAPHOE

His Opinion of the Government's Policy.

The Arrest of Walsh at Havre and the Seizure of his Documents—An Appeal to Victor Hugo.

LONDON, March 4.—The government has demanded from France the extradition of Walsh, arrested at Havre yesterday.

Victor Hugo has asked Victor Hugo to use his influence, with the French government in favor of Byrne.

The bishop of Raphoe, county Donegal, says the only chance of the destitute people to maintain life is through charity. He says the policy of the government is evident from the arrest of Walsh.

DUBLIN, March 4.—The letters sent to Walsh's lodgings show 6000 man enrolled in the secret societies which he had organized in the north of England, and are amply provided with funds and revolvers.

The letters also show that he had organized a police force with abundant evidence to prove P. J. Sheridan was an active inciter to violence. There is no reason to suppose Byrne was directly connected therewith.

THE CRISIS OVER

Members of the House—Bismarck's New Government.

ST. JOHN, N.B., March 3.—The new government was sworn in at Fredericton this morning. Blair, of York, attorney-general and leader of government; Elder, of St. John, provincial secretary; Mitchell, of Charlotte, attorney-general; and Dr. Burns, of St. John, president of the council; Vall, of King; Farmer, of Albert; and Harrison, of Miramichi, members without portfolios.

GILDED YOUTH.

The Story of a Remarkable Career of a Man who was Miserable Life was Recently Ended in One of the Prisons of the City of London.

London, March 3.—A man who was recently ended in one of the prisons of the city of London, was a man who had been in the eye of the public and was the subject of such solicitous interest on the part of the police authorities that his death deserves, perhaps, a few lines beyond the mere announcement of it. Mr. Dan Nobles was certainly eminent in the walk of life.

He was a man of high intelligence, a thief, and like all habitual thieves, in spite of a trade and obnoxious manner, defied his "pals" as well as the honest portion of the community. The origin of Mr. Nobles is involved in obscurity, and it is not known where he was born.

He was particularly noted for his cunning and his ability to get out of any scrape where he buried his body. Mr. Nobles had learned his profession in all its branches and was a man of great energy.

For a time, he was a household name in London, and he was a man of great energy. He was a man of great energy.

AN OLD-TIME CHAPEL RE-OPENED.

Interesting Meeting of the Colored Methodist Church.

Our citizens will often have noticed the little old-fashioned church, with its gable end to the street, standing on Richmond street, near York, and known as the Colored Wesleyan chapel for over forty years. This building was probably the first Wesleyan place of worship erected in Toronto, having been commenced in 1838, but not completed until some years after, through lack of funds, which were collected by the venerable Father Smallwood, who is now in his 83d year, by subscription from friends from Halifax to Detroit. It has undergone repairs on two or three occasions and for several years has not been occupied regularly by the "colored" body, but has been opened by various religious societies and temperance bodies. Besides the hallowed duty of extending the glad tidings of a little history of events which have transpired within its walls. It was here where gathered the passengers of the underground railway to Detroit, after the escape of the fugitive slave bill in the United States congress, and where such men as Saml. B. West, Prof. Douglas, Wm. Stitt and other anti-slavery men delivered many a feeling and eloquent speech. Here meetings were held to support James Anderson, who was sought by the slaveholders and persecuted by the police, and here a man was executed who had committed a murder in his escape. Here meetings were held to raise funds to defend and support James Anderson, who was sought by the slaveholders and persecuted by the police, and here a man was executed who had committed a murder in his escape.
