Gossip From Chicago.

Counselman & Day to John J. Dixon & Co.: Early English cables were firm with upward tendency, and wheat opened ½ to ¼ higher on demand from shorts, but liberal receipts, moderate outgo and lower continental cables brought out free sales for May and market became dull and draggy. Clearanges for the week showed a failing off of nearly a million bushels in wheat and flour. It was also reported that a large part of recent Duluth shipments would re-appear in visible on Monday, as being in store or afloat at Buffalo and Erie. This brought out long wheat and the market closed easy at § decline, with little prospect of a better feeling until the December deliveries shall have been placed. Corn ruled weak on account of colder weather. Provisions opened firmer on buying by a leading packer, but developed little general trading and declined later on sales of December pork by commission houses. Market indicates December deal nearly, if not entirely, evened up so far as public is con-Gossip From Chicago.

The first reports of it were extremely sensational, but correct statement probably is that there are between four or five million bushels of wheat in Buffalo harbor and there is difficulty in getting it unloaded. Market closed dull and tame, and we look for further decline.
