

FOUND GUILTY OF NEGLIGENCE

THREE YEARS' PUNISHMENT FOR MAN WHO ALLOWED A SERIOUS SITUATION TO DEVELOP.

Failure to take proper precautions has been responsible for many deaths, and is the cause of much suffering and hardship to-day.

Take the case of Wm. Dunn, 313 Gerrard St. East, Toronto, Ont. Mr. Dunn was a chronic rheumatic sufferer for ten years. Three years of that ten he spent in bed suffering indescribable torture. Picture the joy of this man on finding that Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules were restoring him to normal health again. Here are a few extracts from his letter to us: "During the past ten years I have been laid up with Rheumatism. One attack confined me to my bed for a year, and a second attack left me helpless for over two years. After I had tried almost everything, a friend got me a box of T.R.C.'s, and a few doses convinced me that I had at last found the proper remedy for my trouble. T.R.C.'s improved my condition rapidly, and I feel that had it not been for T.R.C.'s I should have been laid up for years. T.R.C.'s are certainly wonder workers. Try them."

A MILD PILL FOR DELICATE WOMEN.—The most delicate woman can undergo a course of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills without fear of unpleasant consequences. Their action, while wholly effective, is mild and agreeable. No violent pains or purgings follow their use, as thousands of women who have used them can testify. They are, therefore, strongly recommended to women, who are more prone to disorders of the digestive organs than men.

BLACK AND WHITE

Vogue Launched by French Makers Still in Favor.

Afternoon Dress of White Crepe de Chine Heavily Embroidered in Front With Black Wool.

The imported gowns from that dear Paris are not pretty as to line and design—not even the most enthusiastic admirer of French creations can enthuse over the very short skirts and sleeves and the rather bunched look most of them seem to have—but they are decidedly interesting and, more than that, even they are different from anything we see hereabouts.

Now, for instance, says a fashion writer, comes a white silk jersey evening gown, and from Doucet. It is a charming thing with long lines so very graceful that it is distinctly novel.

While it is true most of the imported models seem to be rather bunched, it is also to be noted that they all more or less are of the one-piece or chemise type of dress. This particular evening gown is an excellent example, as it has nothing to break the long lines except a wide sash going twice around the waist and looping just at the hip on one side. The ends are finished with a heavy silken fringe and about halfway up the skirt are looped strands of white beads punctuated with large flat jet sequins. The yoke of the bodice is ornamented with the same sort of beads and jet so placed that they fall over the shoulders and thus form the sleeves, as there are no others. It is difficult to describe a frock of this sort for the reason that it is far lovelier to see than it is to read about.

All last year the French makers were busy launching a vogue of black and white, and the combination is still highly favored, as I find it exploited pleasingly in a Lanvin afternoon dress of white crepe de chine heavily embroidered in the front with black wool. This dress has the queer skirt distinguishing a number of French gowns by being so much longer in front than in the back and also by having most of the fullness gathered in the front. A black sash goes around the waist and falls quite to the hem in the back.

Indeed, the sash is an important thing on every gown, as it appears in many unusual and interesting arrangements, sometimes placed high up under the arms and crossed in the front and again in the back, where it loops between the shoulderblades and then falls the length of the entire frock. In this instance the sash is not more than four inches wide and appears on a Lige satin frock made with the simplicity of a little girl's school dress, falling long and straight from the shoulders, with only the little crossed sashes at the bust and in the back to hold in the fullness. The sleeves are very short, just the length we would call awkward, as they stop far short of the elbow.

This is a most charming vest of rose silk and lace. Many are the accessories for milady's spring wardrobe and the vest is decidedly popular among the number.

GINGHAM AND MUSLIN LINING

Materials for Inner Finish of Coats and Capes Afford New and Improved Idea.

We hear of satin capes shown at the Paris openings that were lined with a soft pile fabric like duvetyne. These must add materially to the warmth of the garment, notes a fashion writer.

And have you heard of gingham linings? This is a new idea, but after all, why would not gingham make as good a lining for a summer cape or

Are Here Told the Best Remedy for Their Troubles.

Freemont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

cost as satin or peau de cygne or chiffon?

Who would ever have dared to use unbleached muslin for the lining of coats and capes? No one in the world but one of the smartest of Paris dress-makers. Apparently this is merely a bit of daring, and not done in an effort toward economy, for the unbleached fabric is used to line the most gorgeous and luxurious of garments.

Organdie and English Prints. Some of the newest French blouses are of organdie trimmed in English prints, a cotton fabric printed in calico designs.

Do not allow worms to sap the vitality of your children. If not attended to, worms may work irreparable harm to the constitution of the infant. The little sufferers cannot voice their ailment, but there are many signs by which mothers are made aware that a dose of Miller's Worm Powder is necessary. These powders act quickly and will expel worms from the system without any inconvenience to the child.

Paris Casualties from Big Berthas. PARIS, Oct. 21.—The total casualties in Paris resulting from air raids and shells thrown by German long-distance guns were 521 persons killed and 1,224 wounded. These figures were given by M. Evain, president of the Municipal Council, in an address in connection with the conferring of the Croix de Guerre on the city of Paris.

W. J. De Forge, about 25 years of age, was shot through the heart on the street at Winnipeg, the victim, it is believed, of murder.
