WONDERFUL RECOVERY OF HAIR After 18, 25, and 26 years loss.

A fine attestation (selected from numberless others, received during the last 40 years) to the virtues of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL: the originals of which may be seen at the Proprietors.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON, 20, HATTON GARDEN, LONDON. HERBERTS HOTEL, COVENT GARDEN February 16, 1842

GENTLEMEN, In announcing to you the following corroborated attestation of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil, it is my making it public it will be of any service, I shall consider myself but returning in a very small degree the great obligation I feel under to you, and shall be most happy during my stay in London to satisfy any Gentlemen who may be interested in the truth of the following—In the year 1770 I went to India, and shortly after my arrival there my hair fell off in considerable quantities, so that I soon became quite bald. In which state I remained until my arrival last year in America, and at Boston was induced by reading one of your Advertisements to make trial of your Macassar Oil, though I confess with but little hope of success. After the use of one bottle, I found my hair to begin to grow, and with a sort of gratification, I have now the pleasure to inform you, without exaggeration or vanity, that I can boast of a fine head of hair as any one need to have.

I am, Gentlemen, Your grateful Servant, A. MACKENZIE

GENTLEMEN—I take the liberty of addressing my thanks to you for the great benefit I have received from your truly valuable Macassar Oil. Having had the misfortune to lose my hair at the age of five and twenty, in consequence of a fever, I was lately induced, at the instance of a friend, to make trial of your excellent specific and can only say that the effects were most surprising, for in a very short space of time, my head, which was before entirely bald, was soon covered with thick and strong hair. I am now fifty years of age, and could scarcely have expected that after having worn a wig for five and twenty years of my life, I should now be enabled to throw it entirely aside. I think it but justice to yourselves and the public, to add my testimony to the virtues of your truly inestimable Oil, and you have my full permission to make this letter public, and to refer any one to me for proof of the merits of this invaluable discovery.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obliged and obedient Servant, W. C. FRIDLAUF. Liverpool, March 21, 1842.

Extract of a Letter directed to Mr. Oldroyd, Merchant of London, from a friend at Naples, dated May 6, 1843.

I must turn your attention to the following:—Captain Kitchin of the 4th Regiment of Line, in the service of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria, aged 41 years, has been bald ever since the age of 18. He was recommended by "Rowland's Macassar Oil," by a Gentleman who had already experienced its good effects. He bought some of one of the last quantity I received from England, and persevered in applying it. In less than two months his hair began to grow, and in a very short time, the Captain is highly pleased and has spread the fame I assure you, the demand for that article is very great, and must beg you to send me a fresh supply without loss of time.

GENTLEMEN—Having derived essential benefit from the use of your Macassar Oil, I am induced to send you the particulars, which you are at liberty to make known as you may think proper. Rather more than twelve months since I made trial of the Oil, though I confess with but much doubt, as I had been bald eighteen years. It was just three months before any effect was perceptible when a slight down appeared; at the expiration of five months hair had grown on the bald part full half an inch long. I then had the hole of my head regularly shaved once a week for a considerable period, constantly using the Oil, night and morning; the result is, that I have this day discarded my wig, my hair being quite restored and as strong and great in quantity as when I was twenty years of age.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant, C. P. DRIFIELD. 32, Broad Street, Brighton, April 19, 1842.

ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL
