"Probably no single drug is employed in nervous diseases with effects so markedly beneficial as those of cod-liver oil."

These are the words of an eminent medical teacher. Another says: "The hypophosphites are generally acknowledged as valuable nerve tonics."

Both these remedies are combined in Scott's Emulsion. Therefore, take it for nervousness, neuralgia, sciatica, insomnia and brain exhaustion.

Joker's Corner. Trouble for Thomas. While Susan gets hold of him, he'll know what's what. "I would just like to make an inquiry," she said at the general delivery of the post-office the other day. "Yes, ma'am." "My husband is in Buffalo." "I see." "He sends me two letters per week, but only one of them reaches me. In that one he tells of sending me another with a money order in it. Isn't it strange that I never get the money order?" "Well, perhaps," cautiously replied the clerk. "You don't think the carrier stole the other letter each week, do you?" continued the woman. "No, ma'am." "And can you be lost in the mails?" "Hardly." "Well, would you say that if there was anything singular about it—that is, had I a four or five received at least one of the four or five orders he claims to have sent?" "You certainly had. Yes, you might call it a singular case."
